ALDERMEN ACTION

Board Last Night Refused to Stop New Street Work.

LARGE PETITION OR PROTEST PRESENTED

Ordinance Suggested to Provide for Uniform Character of Building Sidewalks Hereafter.

COMPLETE REPORT OF THE BOARD'S DOINGS.

Last evening at the meeting of the aldermen the property owners along Kentucky avenue from Fifth to Ninth streets put in a long petition asking the board not to let the bitulithic contractors tear up that thoroughfare after the reconstruction work reaches Fourth on the avenue, for fear the winter weather will come along and find things in such a torn-up condition that they will have to be abandoned and the highways be left in an impassable condition during the bad months.

This remonstrance re-opened this important question, and the expressions of the aldermen indicated that they did not favor letting the work go ahead after it reached Fourth, but that they did not care to order an estoppel of same without the contractors asked to be granted this permission. The aldermen expressed themselves as believing that the bitulithic people see their dilatory manner in starting the work had made it impossible for them to complete the contract within the time specified when they were given the work, and that the contractors don't ask for the extension of time themselves, but willingly let it come through the board of works, so that if ever the question arose about the undertaking not being finished inside the time limit the contractors could then say that they did not ask for the work to be stopped and time extensions given, but that this was done by the municipal authorities without solicitation on their part therefore they could not be made pay the penalty stipulated in their contract if they do not get done by the time set which is November.

In speaking of the remonstrance on the floor last night Alderman Krause said it was not so much the work the Kentucky avenue people wanted stopped, but that they objected to the bitulithic being put down, and that he, Captain Krause, did not blame them. Judging from what those Nashville people put down over on Broadway between Fifth and Ninth streets. Mr. Krause said the gravel now down on the avenue was better than bitulithic over would be, and that the Broadway work was a failure throughout. He said he would never vote for a bitulithic street until he was shown better work than they have done here in the city.

Finally after discussing the matter the board ordered the work go ahead into the fall unless the bitulithic people themselves asked for it to be stopped and they be granted an extension of the time limit for completing the contract.

All the members were present at last night's session with exception of Member Durrett.

The board approved the sale made by Mayor Yeiser of a lot of ground on Clay between Tenth and Eleventh streets, to John Simmott, Jr., for $1,110. The property was city ground not needed therefore disposed of.

Mayor Yeiser explained to the aldermen that arrangements had been made to award on the 27th instant the contract for grading and graveling Yeiser and Hays avenues in Mechanicsburg, but that the property owners wanted a 50 foot street in width when the improvement was made instead of a 33 foot thoroughfare like provided for by the present profiles of the city engineer. This request for a wider thoroughfare now coming up, the board of works was ordered not to let the contract next Wednesday as originally intended.

To the street committee was referred the communication from Mrs. Margaret Arts, stating she would dedicate ground sufficient for Twenty-first street to be opened and gravelled through her property from the Clinton road to Jackson street, and also their one-half of the property needed to open Nineteenth street.

City Solicitor Campbell and the ordinance committee was ordered to see if measures could not be adopted that will permit the First Baptist church to pay on the ten year plan its cost of the concrete sidewalk and bitulithic street improvement to be made beside their property at Fifth and Jefferson street. The church wants to pay one-tenth each year, and interest on the deferred payments.

The city solicitor and sanitary committee were given the proposition of James Clark, wherein he agrees to furnish the city a garbage dump and look after same at the river front below the I. C. incline to north of town, for $40 per month from April to November and $25 per month from December to March.

The aldermen received the report of the board of public works, stating that there could not be made this winter the extension to the sanitary sewerage district, so as to run the mains out Broadway and a new district created to include that portion of the town between Ninth and Fountain avenue, and Kentucky avenue and Trimble street. The board of works said the reason the undertaking could not be effected was on account of City Engineer Washington being too busy to draw the plans and specifications. This overcrowded condition of affairs in the engineer's office evidencing itself the aldermen ordered the board of works to see if they could not employ an extra sanitary engineer from some large city to come here and draw the plans and supervise laying the sanitary sewers in the new district.

The protest of E. Fels to bitulithic being put in front of his property on Jefferson near Ninth street was filed. The Anheuser-Busch brewing association complained to the aldermen that they owned a building worth about $150, but had been assessed $1,000 on same by the city assessor for tax purposes. This complaint was referred to the board of supervisors.

Mayor Yeiser brought up at this juncture the important question of adopting ordinances providing for a uniform character of street and sidewalk improvements of this city, and urged that something be done in this respect, as it would settle the controversies always arising as to how wide sidewalks and streets shall be, also of what material they shall be improved with. The matter was referred to the board of works to bring in an ordinance governing the situation, and set at rest hereafter all differences in this respect.

The finance committee was given the matter of employing former City Solicitor Ed Puryear to prosecute the suit filed by the city several months ago against the Anheuser-Busch brewing company, wherein attempts are being made to compel the brewery to forfeit to the municipality the $1,000 bond the brewery executed to the city when getting a municipal license to sell beverages. In this bond they promise to obey all municipal laws, but have been convicted of selling beer on Sunday. The present solicitor was employed by the brewery to defend the suit before he was appointed to his public office, and now the former solicitor will have to prosecute same.

The bills, salaries and accounts against the city were allowed.

Initial adoption was given the ordinance providing that concrete sidewalks of five foot width be laid on both sides of Jefferson between Fourteenth and Seventeenth streets. The ordinance was up at the last meeting and some aldermen wanted the pavement made six feet wide, but the property owners out there say it will cause a several weeks delay to change the ordinances up to conform with the six foot idea, therefore they urged adoption of the five foot measure so it could become a law right away, and work started on the walks which they want completed before cold weather comes.

Second adoption was given the bill for pavements of similar width on Jefferson between Eighteenth and Twenty-fifth streets.

First passage was given the ordinance for graveling Sowell street from Ashbrook avenue to Hays avenue, and then Hays avenue from Sowell street to Bridge street.

The ordinance committee was ordered to draft and have in by the first of next year a new measure defining the duties of the city sewerage inspector, and also providing that a competent man must always hold the position.

The street committee was given power to act regarding opening up the new street leading out to the new box factory near the Union depot.

The water company was ordered to extend its supply mains from Twelfth and Salem to Rowlandtown and also make several other extensions.

As to the new concrete culvert to be placed under Caldwell street near the Union depot the board of works was ordered to go ahead with the work.

The water company notified the aldermen it had extended the water mains out Trimble from Sixteenth to Twenty-fourth streets. Received and filed.

CHICAGO PACKERS THROAT WAS CUT

Four of Them Are Fined an Aggregate of $25,000.

ONE OF ACCUSED NEAR DEATH THROUGH FEAR.

Though These Judgments Are Very Promptly Paid the Courts Are Not Through.

THE PACKERS ENTERED PLEA OF GUILTY.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Four officials of the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Packing company of Chicago were fined an aggregate of $25,000 by district court here today.

The fines followed a plea of guilty to indictments charging conspiracy to accept rebates. The defendants were Samuel Weil, of New York, vice president of the company; B. S. Cusey, traffic manager; Vance D. Skopworth and C. E. Todd, assistant traffic manager. Mr. Weil was fined $10,000; the other three $5,000 each.

With the entering of the plea the declaration was made that unless at least one of the cases is immediately settled the life of Sam Weil, who is vice president of the company and one of the defendants, is in jeopardy. He is said to be a nervous wreck, and fear were entertained for his life if he had been allowed to continue under the stigma of an indictment.

No Jail Sentence.

The plea was entered, it was declared after a complete understanding had been reached between counsel for the defendants and Attorney General Wm. H. Moody. While in Chicago the attorney-general was apprised of the condition of Vice President Weil, and it is said, agreed to the entry of a plea of guilty with the understanding that the jail provision of the law under which the indictment was returned should be waived and merely a fine imposed. The same concession was made in the case of the other three defendants.

The four defendants were charged with unlawfully combining and agreeing to solicit rebates for the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger company from the Michigan Central Railroad company, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, the Grand Trunk Western railroad, the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, the Boston & Maine Railroad company and the Mobile & Ohio Railroad company.

How It Was Done.

Charges were made that the defendants conspired with each other in presenting supposed claims for damages, which were in reality claims for rebates.

The plea made today does not in any way affect the charge of interference with government witnesses made in a previous indictment returned against Cusey and other Schwarzschild & Sulzberger men. The four defendants were in the federal court building, and all but Weil appeared before Judge Humphrey.

Other Cases.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—United States District Attorney Morrison today filed a demurrer to the plea of abatement made yesterday by the packers defendant in the beef trust case. The demurrer alleges insufficient allegations in the plea of the packers.

EMIGRATING TO AMERICA.

Leaving the Famine Stricken Districts of Spain.

Madrid, Spain, Sept. 21.—Dispatches from the famine districts of Andalusia say that entire trains of emigrants are leaving to embark for South America. Many families are abandoning their homes and farms.

Some villages in Galicia have been totally deserted through despair of receiving the promise of relief. The steamship companies announce that fifteen steamers loaded with emigrants will leave Andalusian ports in October. The press is urging the government to adopt energetic measures against the wholesale emigration to America.

PEACE CONGRESS.

Lucerne, Switzerland, Sept. 21.—The international peace congress, at its session today, approved the report of its committee favoring a rapprochement between France and Germany by the establishment of closer commercial and political relations.

THROAT WAS CUT

One Man Murderously Assaults Another With Knife

HARRY ALLEN VICTIM OF EDWARD CLOONAN.

Latter Knocked Down Former for Disparaging Remarks Concerning Lady Ere the Assault.

CLOONAN INSTANTLY DECAMPS AND IS FREE.

Mr. Harry Allen, the candidate for coroner, came near meeting a tragic death yesterday afternoon as result of a fight with Engineer Edward Cloonan, of the Illinois Central railroad. The latter is still at large while Allen has his neck handaged, where it was laid open for four inches with one rip of a sharp knife, that came near severing the jugular vein, which was missed by only the sixteenth of an inch.

Mr. Allen had been out electioneering for the nomination of coroner and at Eleventh and Broadway met Engineer Cloonan, Mr. Frank Cremens and several other railroaders. All started down Broadway and were talking when suddenly Cloonan made a remark about a certain young lady of this city. Mr. Allen told him to be careful how he talked, as the lady in question was related to him and he would not stand for any insults about her. Cloonan responded, so Allen claims, that he meant what he said, and at this Allen knocked him down several times. This happened in front of the Wilson home on Broadway between Eighth and Ninth streets, and the others separated the two and the crowd continued on down towards town. They had not gone but about 150 feet when Cloonan suddenly rushed at Allen but Cremens jumped between them. Mr. Allen then backed towards the gutter and stumbled off into the street just as the engineer made a long swipe with the keen-edged knife that struck Allen underneath the right jaw on the neck, and laid open the neck for four inches, leading around to front near the esophagus. Just as he cut the other Cloonan dashed up the street and disappeared. The authorities have not located him, but are putting forth a vigorous search for the man.

The buggy of Druggist James Sleeth was standing closely by the owner took Mr. Allen in his rig and brought him down to the office of Dr. Horace Rivers, who dressed the injury. The blood flowed from the gaping wound in an awful manner, and dyed a crimson red the clothing of Mr. Allen, who was greatly weakened.

On examining the wound the physician found the edge of the knife missed the jugular vein only one-sixteenth of an inch, and that the escape of Mr. Allen from death was a most narrow and fortunate one.

The report got circulated over the city that Allen was killed, but this was erroneous.

A DEMOCRAT

BRYAN SAYS POPULAR ACTS OF THE PRESIDENT ARE DEMOCRATIC.

The Nebraska Democrats Fail to Mention St. Louis Platform in Convention.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 21.—The cohorts of William J. Bryan were in complete control of the democratic state convention in this city yesterday. Mr. Bryan was in attendance as a delegate from Lancaster county, and a speech by the former presidential candidate was one of the chief features of the proceedings. The delegates gave him a pronounced ovation, both when he entered the hall and when he arose to address them.

In his speech, which occupied upwards of an hour, he declared that on every question on which President Roosevelt has attained popularity the administration had but adhered to democratic principles, promulgated man ytimes over in democratic national platforms. He expressed himself as confident the rank and file of republicans would ultimately find it impractical to look for the inauguration of permanent reforms by their party, and that they would transfer their allegiance to the democracy.

The platform was chiefly to a discussion of state issues. It demanded the enactment of a rigid anti-pass law; reduction of freight rates and regulation of railroads. It was silent as to reaffirmation of the St. Louis national platform, and also made no specific reference to the money question. It denounced the acceptance of John D. Rockefeller's gift of $65,000 towards the erection of a religious temple at Nebraska University and demanded that the university regents return the money to the donor.

The convention named Judge W. W. Hastings, of Wilber, for the state supreme bench, and D. C. Cole, of Osceola, and Louis Lightner, of Columbus, were made the nominees for university regents.

EUROPEAN COMPANIES

Will Likely Enter Life Insurance Field in America.

London, Sept. 21.—European life insurance companies, which hitherto have refrained from operating in the United States, are seriously debating the advisability of invading the American field, in view of recent revelations as to the methods of the domestic companies. Several of the leading British corporations are known to have the project under advisement. If they begin business in the United States and find it practicable their example will be followed by some of the German and French life insurance companies.

THE CARNIVAL

Mr. Wesley Flowers has arranged with the Parker Amusement company that shows here next week, to accompany them over the country and carry along "helter-skelter," which is one of the zig-zag chute-the-chutes where the party slides down the circular incline on the padded seat.

Starts Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow night the Parker Amusement company finishes its week at Belleville, Ill., and packing the outfit comes here Sunday and gets in shape to commence the entertainment Monday for the ensuing week.

SERIOUS CONDITION.

Engineer Armstrong Has Dangerous Attack of Pneumonia.

The many friends of Engineer J. T. Armstrong will regret exceedingly to learn that his condition was quite critical early this morning at the railroad hospital on West Broadway. Pneumonia has developed in both lungs to an aggravated degree, and this combined with his injuries received at the Ohio wreck, are sufficient to leave him in a bad state. The doctors will not let anybody see him because his condition will not permit of such.

ACTION DISMISSED.

Justice Barber Dismissed Suit of Pendley vs. Hurt.

Yesterday afternoon there was dismissed in the court of Justice R. J. Barber the suit of Dr. J. W. Pendley against Roy Hurt, for $30 plaintiff claimed was due him for medical services performed for the defendant several years ago.

The suit was filed in 1903 and afterwards judgment went against defendant by default, but the matter was re-opened and on the defendant fighting the matter, the plaintiff dropped the case.

SHOULD PAY BACK

McCall's Campaign Contribution Will Be Returned.

PRESIDENT DISPLEASED OVER ITS CHARACTER.

Illegally Taken From Policy Holders and Should Not Have Been Used in Campaign.

CALLED ADVISERS AND EXPRESSED HIMSELF

Oyster Bay, Sept. 21.—Four of the men closest to President Roosevelt's administration were in conference on Sagamore Hill on the subject of the attitude the administration should take toward the illegal contributions of corporations in political campaigns. The men President Roosevelt called in consultation are Secretary of State Elihu Root, Joseph M. Choate, Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, and George B. Cortelyou, postmaster general.

The practical politicians have advised the president that a nominee should have nothing to do with the campaign contributions, and is in no way responsible for their character. But the president, who, in his last message to congress, pleaded for a Federal law to compel the publicity of all Federal election contributions, feels keenly the humiliation of illegally given insurance money as a factor in his election. He believes that the only way to put an end to the use of illegal money in elections is not only not to take it, but to pay it back when the facts are disclosed as in the present instance.

Wants Law on the Matter.

To this end he has summoned George B. Cortelyou, the chairman of the republican campaign committee; Secretary Root, who knows intimately the machinery of the big insurance companies; Senator Lodge, his personal representative in the senate; and Joseph H. Choate, upon whose legal judgment he relies implicitly. The conference may be said to be secret.

The conference began after dinner and lasted into the morning. The president's advisers spent the night in Sagamore Hill, and will leave by a morning train. It is known that the president will ask congress to frame a law after the English model, requiring the chairman of political committees to publish not only the amounts expended, but the names of the contributors and the amounts given.

A Step Further.

But, if the advisers approve, it is believed he will go a step further and pay back to the treasuries of the life insurance companies all money contributed by them to the last campaign. It is known that Mr. Cortelyou has a considerable balance on hand. It is thought it will not be difficult to make up the difference should there be one.

President Roosevelt feels that nothing but radical measures can efface a scandal which he feels more keenly than any that has come in his administration. He urged this view upon his visitors, moreover, as a wise party measure that may forestall future disaster. It is felt that some important administration move is sure to follow last night's conference. If the president has his way the $8,000 contributed by the New York Life, and any other life insurance contributions to the last campaign, will be returned. The president wants this incident to be a milestone of progress in his administration instead of a scandal that would forever becloud his personal triumph of 1904.

Secretary Root, Senator Lodge and Mr. Choate arrived here together about 5.40.

In response to inquiries Secretary Root said he expected to go to Washington about October 1, and until then would not undertake, in the full acceptance of the term, the duties of his office. The three visitors will remain as guests of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt today.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt yesterday afternoon received the duchess of Harborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, and her hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mackay. The party remained with President and Mrs. Roosevelt about half an hour.

THE LOVING CASE

Called and Continued in Circuit Court Yesterday.

BY AGREEMENT OF STATE BAIL WAS TAKEN

Several More Convictions Made and Some Fines Assessed During the Day.

NUMBER OF DIVORCES GRANTED BY JUDGE REED.

H. H. Loving was yesterday admitted to bail in $10,000 after there had been continued the case charging him with shooting and killing H. A. Rose last August at their office in the Fraternity building. His bondsmen are El Guthrie, W. C. O'Bryan and Dr. J. T. Reddick, and when they attached their names to the bond the court dismissed Mr. Loving to go his way until the coming December. Yesterday morning the courthouse was packed with witnesses, spectators, court officials and others, present to attend the trial, and great interest was manifested in every move in the proceedings. When Judge Reed reached the Loving case on his docket about 10:30 o'clock he asked the lawyers if they were ready for trial. The attorneys for the prosecution announced that they were not, as on calling their list of witnesses they found that a number of them were absent. The defense was ready for the proceeding, but at request of the commonwealth attorneys the judge granted a continuance, and set the case for trial on the 7th day of the December term of court. Then came up the question of admitting Loving to give bail, and Judge Reed announced he would hear arguments on this point this morning. This disposing of the matter he ordered Mr. Loving into the hands of Jailer Fayette Jones, and the accused remained in the office of the jail but was not locked up. It was about 11 o'clock when the case was disposed of, but yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when court was about to adjourn, the lawyers for the prosecution informed Judge Reed that an agreement had been reached, whereby it was satisfactory that Mr. Loving be granted bail of $10,000, which was the same amount he was held over to the circuit court when there was finished his examining trial in the police court. No sooner had the two sides agreed to the bond than the sureties were furnished in Messrs Reddick, O'Bryan and Guthrie. Congressman Ollie James, who is a warm personal friend of Mr. Loving, arrived here yesterday from Marion and became associate counsel for Mr. Loving, and will help fight the case. Hon. Hal Corbett is the main attorney for the accused and has been handling everything in connection with his associate in the case, Attorney Cecil Reed.

Other Matters.

Ernest Hill and Luntz Hill were each given two years in the penitentiary on the charge of assaulting C. E. Evans one night out beyond Rowlandtown, on the Cairo road. It seems that Evans was going home and the two Hill boys, with others tried to rob him, but Evans pulled his gun, took a crack at them, and they fled, but were afterwards captured through confessions of another darky. After being given the sentence they made a motion for a new trial. There was brought in an indictment charging James E. English with converting to his own use money Wm. Numsen, of Baltimore, claims belongs to him. The accused executed bond of $1,000 for his appearance. He denies the charge. A card in his defense is printed elsewhere. Harry Phillips was released on executing $300 bond to guarantee his appearance before the court at the next term. He is charged with helping Alex Yeltima rob J. E. Warford of a watch at a West Court street resort. Yeltima is still incarcerated, not having furnished bail for his appearance. E. Pankey was fined $50 and costs for gutting William Smith, at Second and Jefferson streets, during the Labor Day parade several weeks ago, as result of a quarrel they had when Smith would not wear a sun flower in the parade, after Pankey bought it for him. Two years in the penitentiary was the term given Alex Fitzpatrick on the charge of stealing a watch from J. R. Cross. C. Thomas, colored, got sixty days in the county jail for stealing a gun from Conductor Beyers Robertson, of the Illinois Central railroad. The conductor claimed the negro took the firearm out of the caboose of his freight train. In connection with this proceeding John Griffith, colored, was indicted on the charge of false swearing. Griffith, when Thomas was arrested for stealing the gun, told Officer Churchill and Conductor Robertson that he, Griffith, had gotten the gun from down in Tennessee by express. Griffith afterwards denied having said this, and for the reverse swearing was indicted. His bond was fixed at $300 and he released, Chief Collins going his bail. Augustus Green, colored, got one year in the penitentiary for robbing Alice Payne, negress, of $55 while she lay asleep in the same room with him at the home of Hattie Pointer, colored, on South Tenth street.

There was dismissed the four cases against the Standard Oil company, charging that corporation with peddling oil without the proper license here in this city and county. On the proceedings being dismissed by Judge Reed the commonwealth's attorney appealed same to the appellate bench.

Not Yet Decided.

Sheriff Lee Potter has not yet decided when he will take to the penitentiary the prisoners convicted at this term of court, but it will probably not be until next Monday or Tuesday. The men all go to the branch prison at Eddyville, while the females go to Frankfort. One woman to go along is Mrs. Mary Brockwell, the white woman, who murdered her three little children last spring by giving them poison at their home in Mechanicsburg. She was sent up for life at the April term of criminal court, but her case left open and she kept here in the county jail until this session, so it could be decided whether she was insane and deserving of a new trial. Her lawyers dropped the insanity plea, however, and let the sentence stand. The prisoners given terms will be brought before the court today and sentenced passed on them.

Many Divorces Granted.

Judge Reed granted quite a number of divorces yesterday. Lelia Wade Lewis was given a divorce from David I. Lewis, and also granted exclusive custody over their two children, David and Mariam Lewis. The husband is also perpetually enjoined from interfering with the plaintiff or her children. William Skelton was given a dissolution of the matrimonial ties that bound him to Rosa Skelton.

Blanche Tittsworth was divorced from Charles Tittsworth, given custody of their child, Jewell Tittsworth, and restored to her maiden name of Blanche Ligons.

Johanna McCartney was divorced from William C. P. McCartney, latter the lawyer formerly of this city.

Divide Estate.

Yesterday in the Federal court here was filed an answer in the suit of Josiah Cowper against Susan Parker and others. J. N. Dewell for 14 years collected rents from 3,000 acres of Livingston county ground that belonged to defendants. When threatened with suit he committed suicide several months ago. Now a friendly suit is filed by Cowper against the others in the Federal court to settle the matter, and the defendants yesterday acknowledged the collection of rents and asked the court to divide the estate.

Suit for Serious Charge.

Judge Wm. Reed goes to Fulton tonight to consult with other lawyers regarding the $10,000 damage suit of Thomas M. Franklin against Dr. R. N. Whitehead, which comes up at the Federal court next month. Judge Reed represents the plaintiff, whose wife died of blood poisoning. Franklin now sues for alleged malpractice on part of the physician.

Civil Proceedings.

A judgment was fixed in the action of Henry Temple, Jr., vs G. B. Burrows, and then Master Commissioner Cecil Reed lodged a deed transferring property to Felix G. Rudolph.

Judgment was given against Oscar L. Gregory for $500.88 in favor of the T. A. Snider preserve company. Gregory owed them for goods bought of the Snider people.

Allowances Made.

The court allowed Detective T. J. Moore $74.60 for carrying Dennis Reed, colored, to the reform school at Lexington, while Detective William Baker was allowed $75.80 for taking the Skillian girl there. Lawyer David Cross was allowed $60 for acting judge of the police court while Judge David Sanders was away on his vacation and also sick.

Brought to Close.

Judge Reed yesterday brought to a close all the work looking towards trying cases this term of court, as everything in this line had been disposed of. He then dismissed the petit jurors, but continued the sifting of the grand jury until Saturday afternoon so they can investigate the few more cases left before them.

ARMISTICE ARRANGED.

Naval Commanders Fix It Up in Five Hours.

Vladivostok, Sept. 21.—The Russian and Japanese squadrons commanded, respectively, by Rear Admiral Jensen and Vice Admiral Kamimura, met in Koruloff Bay September 16 and arranged the terms of the naval armistice. The conference, which lasted five hours, determined on the zones in which the ships of the two nations are free to circulate and regulated the question of contraband.

TOO CROWDED

MORE SCHOOL ROOM BODILY NEEDED IN NORTHWEST PART OF TOWN.

Supt. Lieb Acquaints the School Trustees With This Condition—Other School Matters.

It is more than probable that arrangements will have to be made for additional schooling facilities for the northern portion of the city, as all rooms are so crowded something has to be done, and that immediately, to relieve the congested condition. Supt. Lieb has been talking to the trustees for the past day or two in regard to this proposition, and prospects are that remedial measures will be adopted right away.

At present in the Washington building, on West Broadway, there is an average of 44 pupils in each of the eleven rooms below the departmental work which starts in the seventh grade. This is entirely too many for each room, while over at the building on Eighth and Harrison streets there is an average of 44 there also, and likewise this is in excess of the number above which it is believed that proper training can be given the scholars by a single instructor. In these two buildings there is all too something like 80 too many pupils in the grades. There is also about that number of children coming from out in the northern portion of the city beyond Trimble and Twelfth streets and that vicinity. Supt. Lieb believes that to relieve the over-crowded condition of affairs that a small two-room frame building should be erected now on the block of ground the city owns at the Faxon addition, which is several squares beyond Twelfth and Burnett streets. It would cost only a few hundred dollars to put up this small structure that will be for temporary purposes until next year, when a substantial school will be erected to last for years. If this two room affair is erected now, the 80 or 100 scholars from that vicinity can be put therein and thus reduce the attendance at the other schools. Taking away of this many children will leave things just right at the two other places, with a little more shifting about from one room to another.

The only thing that has prevented construction of a building out in the Faxon addition was the scarcity of funds, but it is believed arrangements from the financial standpoint can be made for the small house needed there just for temporary purposes alone for the time being.

Every trustee realizes the necessity for the building because many of the scholars from that vicinity have to walk over two miles to get to school and this exposure is dangerous during snowy, wintry weather. If the little building goes up on North Twelfth it will necessitate the employment of two new instructors.

Start to Work Monday.

Tomorrow the criminal session of the circuit court comes to a close and all the jurors will be dismissed. This will release Capt. W. H. Patterson, the former city clerk, who will next Monday start to work going over the city tax books at the City Hall, getting up the account the school board claims to have against the municipality as the share of back taxes due the educational department of the town. Mr. Patterson has been engaged to get up the statement, but on account of being busy on the jury has been unable to start.

The city claims that the schools are not entitled to any portion of back taxes, which are those received by enforced collection, or after the penalty is put on, for not being paid at the time they are due. The trustees claim they are entitled to their share of the taxes under this head, and their position is borne out in the legal opinion they got from Lawyers Hendrick, Miller & Marble. As the municipal authorities refuse to pay the board of education what the latter claim is justly due them, the board has employed Mr. Patterson to go over the books, find out how much is due the schools and make a report. Then if the municipal officers again reject the claim suit will be filed for collection.

Teachers Meet Today.

Today at noon the schools dismiss in order the teachers may this afternoon at the high school building on West Broadway, gather for their first literary session which is held monthly. Nothing will be done today though as regards study in literature, because the instructors have not outlined their programme for this winter, showing what subject will be studied, and also allotting to each teacher the matter she is to read papers on. Arrangements will at today's session be made for compilation of the year's programme, so as to have things ready for reports, papers and discussions next month. After fixing that this afternoon, the teachers will have their grade meetings, at which time all the instructors of every building for the same grade, repair to a different room and there discuss their work, outline matters, exchange experiences, etc.

The teachers are all compelled to attend these literary meetings because the school board provides that participation therein is viewed just like

$50,000 PAID IN

SHERIFF POTTER'S FORCE IS KEPT QUITE BUSY NOW TAKING TAXES.

County Assessor John Hughes Has Finished Valuing Property in Districts Five and Four.

Things are getting lively around the office of Sheriff Lee Potter, on South Fourth street, as the property owners have commenced rolling in at a pretty rapid gait to pay their taxes for county and state purposes. The deputies are kept very busy looking after taking the money and receipts for same, but will be busier from now until the first of next month, than during the past, as October 1st the ten per cent penalty goes on and will have to be paid by everybody who does not come forward and settle their taxes before that date.

Mr. Potter yesterday said that they had collected something like $50,000 already, but the biggest rush was in store for them as they have to collect something like $150,000, which is three times the amount already collected.

After the penalty goes on and the people do not come forward the sheriff then publishes through the paper the names of the delinquents and location of their property and sells the latter in order to get the tax money. When the property has to be sold the extra expense is greatly increased to the owner, as there is included the amount of tax, ten cent penalty, cost of advertising, sale, etc.

Finished Districts.

County Assessor John Hughes did not get finished until yesterday districts Nos. 3 and 4 wherein he is assessing property for next year's county and state taxes. These two districts lie here in the city and he thought he could get them done last week, but did not do so until yesterday.

spending the afternoon in the room over the pupils. The board arranged for this half holiday so that if the teachers were not at these gatherings they could be "docked" in their pay just like when they are out of school. Until last year the literary meetings were held of Saturday's but so many of the teachers happened to get sick and could not attend that the change to Friday was made.

NOT MUCH HURT

MISS LANDRUM WAS NOT INJURED BAD BUT MISS COWPER WAS.

Attorney C. W. Watts Will Make One of the Most Formidable Candidates in Race.

County Clerk George Landrum, of Smithland, arrived here yesterday and reports that his daughter, Miss Ora, was not hurt very badly during the runaway last Tuesday, when she and Miss Dave Cowper were thrown from their rig. Miss Landrum Wednesday went over to Marion to visit her aunt, accompanied by her father. Yesterday they came back and the young lady left the train at Calvert City and drove over to Smithland, while County Clerk Landrum came on down here and goes home this morning by river. Miss Cowper suffered only two fractures of her left leg above the knee, instead of three, and will be laid up many weeks. Miss Landrum goes to South Carolina next Monday to take the position of chief musical instructor for a co-educational institute of prominence.

Strong, Able Man.

Attorney C. W. Watts, of Smithland, Ky., was in the city yesterday and was seen by a representative of The Register in reference to the race now being run in Livingston county for the nomination of county attorney on the democratic ticket to supply the place made vacant by the resignation of Hon. T. E. Butler, on account of ill health. The candidates so far announced besides Attorney C. W. Watts are W. I. Clarke, O. C. Loshier, Fred Cowper and G. W. Rapoport. Attorney C. W. Watts is a well known lawyer of the Smithland bar having practiced there since 1891, and was the law partner of Hon. John K. Hendrick before Mr. Hendrick moved his law office to Paducah. He is one of the best educated men in Western Kentucky, and is a scholar of considerable note. He has been very successful as a lawyer and every indication points to the conclusion that he will make a strong race in Livingston county for the nomination for county attorney. Mr. Watts is well known in Paducah and has many friends here.

NO DEAL YET

MR. BARNETT SAYS NOTHING HAS BEEN EFFECTED AT HOPKINSVILLE.

Meetings For Benefit of Tobacco Growers Out in This County Tonight and Tomorrow.

Yesterday morning there arrived here Mr. Barnett, one of the buyers for the tobacco department of the Italian government, and he stated that as yet nothing had been done by that foreign government regarding purchasing the 8,000 hogheads of tobacco the Tobacco Growers association wants to sell them. Messrs Ferigo and Dunnington have been in conference at Hopkinsville the past week or two with the representatives of the growers association, and samples looked at from all the tobacco the latter wants to sell the Italian people. It is not yet known when a close will be brought to the negotiations. Mr. Barnett is one of the buyers for this district and has been at the conference with Messrs Ferigo and Dunnington, who are the main agents in this country for Italy.

Tobacco Men Speak.

The tobacco growers of this section of the country are organizing more strongly every day in different counties, and the association is growing swiftly. Mr. J. W. Several other places in this county will be visited within the next week or two, but no definite dates are made for same.

HOSPITALS CROWDED

MAJORITY OF PATIENTS WOMEN

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Gives Many From this Bad and Costly Experience.

It is a sad but true fact that every year brings an increase in the number of operations performed upon women in our hospitals. More than three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow white beds are women and girls who are awaiting or recovering from operations made necessary by neglect.

Every one of these patients had plenty of warning in that bearing down feeling, pain at the left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, leucorrhoea, dizziness, flatulency, displacements of the womb or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries, and if not headed the trouble will make headway until the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation, and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at best, while in many cases the results are fatal.

The following letter should bring hope to suffering women. Miss Lucella Adams, of the Colonnade Hotel, Seattle, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—About two years ago I was a great sufferer from a severe female trouble, pains and headaches. The doctor prescribed for me and finally told me that I had a tumor on the womb and must undergo an operation if I wanted to get well. I felt that this was my death warrant, but I spent hundreds of dollars for medical help, but the tumor kept growing. Fortunately I corresponded with an agent in the New England States, and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was said to cure tumors. I did so and immediately began to improve in health, and I was entirely cured, the tumor disappearing entirely, without an operation. I wish every suffering woman would try this great preparation.

Just as surely as Miss Adams was cured of the troubles enumerated in her letter, just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman in the land who suffers from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, kidney troubles, nervous excitability and nervous prostration.

WIRE INSPECTOR

APPOINTMENT OF THIS OFFICER IS LIKELY TO BECOME PERMANENT.

Fire Chief Wood Argues His Work Has Been Beneficial and Service Made Necessary.

Chief James Wood, of the fire department, will urge upon the city legislative boards that the "city electrician" or inspector of all electric wiring be continued in service permanently, as his work shows his services have redounded to benefits of the city and property owner alike, as a noticeable decrease in fires exists since he has compelled people to place their electrical wiring in the best condition possible. The chief believes it would more than pay the town to keep the services of Inspector Gilsdorf always, as the city was never in better condition from this standpoint.

On account of the unusually defective wiring in all buildings over the city the fire insurance companies urged upon the municipal authorities that a competent electrician be employed to thoroughly inspect every building, and make the owners put the wiring in first-class condition so as to lessen the great danger from fire through this medium. The fire insurance companies always have outlined a schedule showing how electric wiring should be done. The city boards during last May employed Mr. Gilsdorf, who was recommended by the insurance companies, and the understanding when he was named was that his services were for six months only, during which time he was supposed to inspect the wiring in every building in Paducah and get the proprietors to alter same so as to conform to the fire insurance schedule, in case the connections were not up to that standard. Inspector Gilsdorf has been working hard every day visiting the different buildings, but has not gotten half way over the town yet, and Chief Wood, of the department, says it will take a year for him to go to each building, because in nearly every one defects are found.

During his time already spent here Inspector Gilsdorf has done much towards remedying the bad wiring, and the chief says the work is showing in the reduction of fires, much of which start from these bad electrical connections.

LAST CLUB SHOOT

THE GUN CLUB MEMBERS PULL OFF FINAL EVENTS NEXT WEEK.

Party Capturing Cup Will Be Paducah's Official Representative at Louisville Shoot.

Next Thursday afternoon the members of the Paducah gun club will hold their final shoot of this season over the traps at Wallace park, and immediately afterwards the trap and other outfit will be stored away for the winter months, when it is too cold for the out-of-door sport.

The closing shoot will be quite an important event. The club has a fine cup that is passed around from one members to the other, just according to who makes the best scores at each shoot. The highest man always gets the cup, and now for next Thursday arrangements are being made for a roo clay pigeon event, each participant to fire at that many targets. Whichever party breaks the most will be awarded the cup for the winter, while in addition he will be sent by the local club to the big shoot at Louisville next month to compete for the elegant prizes to be given there for the best marksman. The Louisville shoot comes off October 3rd and 4th, and will be attended by the cracks of the world, as huge prizes are awarded, and are proving sufficient to draw the finest in the land, as the leading shooters have all been entered in the contests.

The gun club here has given some excellent events the season now closing, but did not pull off any tournament this year because all the available dates were already being used by other cities, and the local sportsmen did not want to give events that conflicted with their neighbors.

The shoot next Thursday being the last of the season, every member of the club will be out, and some fine shooting witnessed, as all are anxious to possess the cup during the winter, and be the official representative from here to the big meet at the Falls City.

The new steel car equipment ordered for the electrical conversion of the suburban service of the New York Central consists of 123 cars. All cars will be equipped as motor cars, and will be operated on the multiple unit train system.

SPRINGFIELD MEN SEND MECHANICS HERE TO LAY FOUNDATION.

Mausoleum for Smith Estate at Oak Grove Cemetery Will Not Be Done Until Spring.

Mr. James R. Smith has received word from the Springfield, Ill., contractors preparing the handsome mausoleum for the Smith cemetery lot here, that they would send their men next month to put down the foundation for the edifice, but would not bring the mausoleum to this city and erect it until next spring.

The marble columns and other parts are being turned out now in Vermont by the contractors who have headquarters at Springfield. The foundation is to be laid this fall so as to settle good by next spring when the heavy top work will be placed. The contractors could not have everything ready for putting up this fall as they thought they would. The Mausoleum will cost something like $15,000 and have receptacles wherein can be placed the bodies of about nine persons. It will be the handsomest structure of its character to be found anywhere in the country, and goes on the Smith lot in Oak Grove cemetery. On its completion the remains of the late Capt. J. R. Smith will be placed within.

The contract for the work was let last spring by Mr. James P. Smith, and it was thought the undertaking would be completed by late in the fall, but the contractors are unable to do this.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Register is authorized to announce HARRY S. ALLEN as a candidate for Coroner of McCracken county, subject to action of the democratic precinct conventions to be held Saturday October 7.

Money in Elections.

It is quite amusing to notice how quick the democratic political grafters rush into print to avow that they did not get any campaign contributions from the big insurance companies in 1904. The statement of Mr. McCall, of the New York Life Insurance company, that his company contributed $50,000 to the republican campaign fund is readily accepted as being true by the same little grafters, and Mr. McCall follows up that statement with another to the effect that the democrats nearly worried the life out of him begging for a contribution too. He says he could not go on the streets without being held up by some of the solicitors for the democrats. If one of Mr. McCall's statements is true is it not reasonable to suppose that both statements are true? We believe both statements, and further believe that the professional politician on the democratic side is not one whit better than the one on the republican side. Both are out for the stuff, and to see how much of the swag he himself can hold on to and still keep out of the penitentiary. Little cheap john politicians have made themselves notorious in Kentucky by their stealings of campaign funds, and to hear them mouth about the other fellow for doing exactly what they tried to do.

We do not pretend to offer any defense for the republicans, but simply to make the point that the political affairs of both parties are in the hands of grafters and that each party will as quickly corrupt the voters of this country as the other. Day by day the evidence is forthcoming on all sides that rottenness and corruption exists all along the line, and unless the good citizens stand together and vote to clean out the gangs conditions will become intolerable. Let every true citizen think and act for himself regardless of politics. Vote for none but clean men.

The Longfellow School Building.

Some months ago we called the attention of the board of education to the filthy and unsanitary condition of the basement in the Longfellow building at the corner of Fifth and Kentucky avenue. A member of the board reported that the building was in a good sanitary condition. A few weeks ago we again called attention of the board of health to the conditions existing there and now after an investigation the board finds that the basement is in "a fearful condition," and that it must be remedied at once. While the building is connected with the sewers there appears to be imperfect drainage, and as a consequence the health of the pupils is in jeopardy. No matter what the cost may be, the board of education should at once take up the matter and put the building in a good sanitary condition. We do not know who is at fault in the matter, but the board cannot afford to ignore the matter any longer, if so then it borders on being criminal.

If the parents of the pupils who attend that school will investigate, they will find that the conditions are a menace to the health of their children, and that matters should have been remedied months ago.

Indiana is about to develop a "Folk" in its governor. The Indiana executive has been prodding the law-breakers in this state in a mild way for some months, but proposes now to put on his armor and go to battle with more earnestness. Harsh criticism, resentment, accusation as to motive, etc., have fired the new Folk in his purposes rather than abashed him, and the grafters and other rascals and lawbreakers are to be stood up before the law. The men who were lately boldly abusing Indiana's executive for his enforcement of the laws now recognize their mistakes and are preparing to dodge out. Indiana may yet be less a den of and refuge for lawbreakers than now.

When the insurance investigation now on in New York was first talked about The Register said it would result in good to all concerned—the insurance companies and the stockholders. The developments of the investigation more than verify The Register's prediction. The promise is that the rascally managers of the insurance companies will not only be exposed and will have to move out, if the companies would hold the respect of the people, but that there will be a disgorgement of ill-gotten money which will be returned to the stockholders indirectly if not directly. Although the investigation comes late it is yet timely.

If it be right for the democrats of Nebraska to fuse with the populists of that state, why is it not right for any political element to fuse with another in any other state. Mr. Bryan was in the democratic convention of Nebraska and sanctioned the fusion. If Bryan and his fellow citizens can fuse, who is it among Bryan's followers that can consistently oppose any kind of fusion? From what we have read of politics in Nebraska we are convinced that the democrats out there are for anything that will help them to get an office.

The committee which is doing the insurance investigation act in New York intimated yesterday that they had only just begun their work. They promise the public a complete expose of all the mismanagements of the several life insurance companies which they can reach ere they have finished the work in hand.

Several of the Chicago packers paid yesterday for unlawfully combining and soliciting railroad rebates. The assessments aggregate $25,000, and yet the accused are not entirely out of the woods. The indicted packers confessed their guilt to get off as light as they did.

There is nothing wrong with the secret ballot in Kentucky. The fault is in our laws not being specific and plain enough to land every election thief in the penitentiary. Send the ballot box stuffers and repeaters to jail and the ballot will be all right.

Judge Moss, of Memphis, laid down the law on elections in that city a few days ago, and he says he intends to see that an honest election is held in Shelby county or know the reason why.

FURTHER SHOCKS OF EARTHQUAKE.

Lightning Also Does Much Damage in Same Section.

Monteleone, Italy, Sept. 21.—Further slight shocks of earthquake and violent storms extending over the whole of Calabria added to the distress of the stricken population. Lightning caused a fire at Olivadi which destroyed the remaining property belonging to the survivors of the earthquake. Panics occurred at Cantanzaro and Reggio, where several buildings were struck by lightning.

CREMATES HIMSELF AND FAMILY.

Madison, Ind., Sept. 21.—On Battysville Ridge in Switzerland county last night George Ford, who was believed to be insane, cremated his wife and three children by setting fire to the house in which they were asleep. All four perished.

An elephant at Jena, Germany, seized a man who was teasing him with a knife and dashed him to the ground. Three days later the man succumbed to his injuries.

CABINET SESSION

JAPANESE MINISTER TALK OVER PRESENT SITUATION IN COUNTRY.

United on the Policy to Be Pursued, But There is No Declaration Thereof.

Tokio, Sept. 21.—A prolonged meeting of the cabinet and elder statesmen took place today, but the subject of the conference has not yet been made public. It is believed that various matters relating to home and foreign policy were under discussion.

The Papers Quieter.

Tokio, Sept. 21.—The expressions of dissatisfaction over the terms of the treaty of peace, in the columns of the local papers are not so frequent as they were some time ago.

The list of papers suspended since the urgency ordinance was passed includes nine published in Tokio and thirteen published elsewhere, five of which were re-suspensions.

At the time of the outbreak of popular indignation occasioned by the intervention of three European powers at the close of the war between China and Japan, the cases of papers suspended exceeded 200, ten of which were in Tokio.

The Ashai remains suspended. It is twelve days since its publication was ordered stopped.

The news of the Russian emperor's proposal to hold a second peace conference at The Hague has not so far evoked any comment by the press.

Firmly United as to Policy.

Tokio, Sept. 21.—Primer Katsuma and the other ministers were in conference today with the elder statesmen from 10 till 5 o'clock. There was a frank exchange of views by all on the present situation and the recent disturbances. It developed that the ministers and the elder statesmen are all firmly united as to the policy to be pursued.

Honest Elections.

(Nashville Banner.)

Judge Moss of the criminal court of Shelby county has reiterated his determination to use all the power of his court in favor of honest elections. In his charge to the grand jury last Tuesday, Judge Moss said: "The court intends to see, gentlemen, and I want to emphasize it, that a fair and honest election is held in this city in November; and the court will instruct the sheriff, and does now instruct him, to see that the law is carried out. Politics must in no way interfere with this, and you must see to it that it is not permitted to do so. A free ballot and a fair count are the foundation of a good government, and the purity of the ballot box must and shall be preserved at all hazards. This court will guard with a jealous eye the purity of the ballot box, and the court is assured that the attorney general will do his duty in assisting the court in the proper punishment of all violations of the law in this regard, and that the sheriff and his deputies will do their duty in carrying out the law in November."

A free ballot and a fair count are the essentials to good government, and when the courts and officers of the law properly exercise their power and authority, much can be done to prevent wrong-doing in elections. The trouble has been that the courts have been practically aloof or useless in the matter of bringing election frauds and wrong-doing to task. With all the charges of corruption and of fraudulent voting that are so often made, we rarely hear of an offender being brought to justice. An election result may be contested and it may be shown that frauds were committed here and there, but nobody seems to be willing to shoulder the responsibility of bringing the corruptists to punishment under the law. No matter how clearly and definitely fraudulent voting may be proved, the only question seems to be whether the discovery will change the result as it affects the candidates who are seeking office. The election laws provide for the trial and punishment of commissioners of registration, officers of election and voters who violate the law, but the machinery of our courts appears useless in bringing offenders to justice. Like the law against perjury, one of the most common of offenses, the election law is practically a dead letter so far as its penal features are concerned. This shows that there is something radically wrong in the administration and enforcement of law, and consequently election corruptors have no respect or fear of the law. There is no law that should be more rigidly enforced than the election law. It is to be hoped that Judge Moss will be able to set a wholesome precedent that will have a good effect throughout the state.

POLICE CANNOT

QUELL FERMENT.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Sept. 21.—Gov.-Gen. Skallon has issued an army order drawing attention to the insufficiency of the police to quell the general ferment in Russian Poland, and to the fact that it is necessary that the military authorities vigorously and fearlessly co-operate in restoring order.

license to open a saloon on South Third near Elizabeth streets.

Dennis Loving was permitted to move his saloon from 928 Husands to Tenth and Husands streets.

There was nothing done with the communication from the regular butchers of the city asking that parties be compelled to quit peddling meat over town.

Bradley brothers were refunded $25 too much city license money they paid into the municipal treasury, while the requests of Otis Overstreet and Barry & Henneberger to be given back the excess they paid in were referred to the license committee and city solicitor for investigation.

Ed Mattison was permitted to transfer one half of his Oak Grove cemetery lot to Will Schreer and the other half to Mrs. Zola King, while there was ratified the sale of lots by the city to J. A. Leek and W. L. Mooney. To the cemetery committee was passed the complaint of Mrs. Shanklin that Charles Smith was wrongfully occupying one-half of her cemetery lot in Oak Grove.

A request was put in that the sewerage system be extended 50 feet down Trimble from Fifth street, and this was referred to the board of works.

City Solicitor Campbell was ordered to make out a deed transferring to the school board of the old Mechanicsburg school property that heretofore has been in name of the city.

The board of works was instructed to look into the question of putting an iron railing up on top of the edge of the curbing in front of Jones hardware store at Second and Kentucky avenue. The concrete sidewalk is three feet higher than the street and people are liable to fall over into the gutter and get hurt if a railing is not put up.

Orders were given that the I. C. railroad open the gutter and let the water flow off at Second and Monroe streets. When they laid the switch track running from their river front rails to behind Covington's wholesale grocery, the road employes stopped up the gutter at Second and Monroe so water could not flow off.

The I. C. was given permission to place on their Second street tracks the carloads of coal received here for the public schools. This fuel has to be weighed over the city scales that are only a block from the Second street part of the river front switch.

Alderman Bell raised the point and wanted to know if the people on South Third street could reconstruct themselves the brick sidewalks fronting their property and alongside which is being put down the brick streets. Some property owners want to build their own sidewalks, while others want to let the work out by contract. The city solicitor and city engineer were ordered to see how this work has to be done so as to conform to the ordinance existing.

City Engineer Washington was given power to move from in front of Broadfoot's grocery at Third and Elizabeth streets the public drinking fountain for horses. He will place it over on the top of the hill where Elizabeth street runs down to the river off Third, several hundred feet from the hydrant's present location. On motion, the board adjourned.

Inspect Business Monies.

Mr. C. C. Rose, the local commissioner for the fire insurance companies, will next week commence making his semi-annual inspection of all buildings in the city to see that the premises are kept clean. Those found in bad shape have the fire insurance rates raised on same.

JUST LIKE SO MANY CATTLE

Immigrants on Three Ships Before Trip is Ended.

New York, Sept. 21.—Having been passengers on three different steamers to which they were successively transferred, 1,002 persons arrived here today in the steerage of the steamship Graf Waldersee.

These passengers were the first party of immigrants to be subjected to the cholera quarantine regulations, which were recently applied to steerage passengers leaving Hamburg, and the enforcement of these precautions caused their numerous transfers.

They embarked originally at Hamburg on the steamer Moltke, but disembarked at Cuxhaven, where they went aboard the steamer Bulgaria, and were detained on that ship for eight days. Finally the Bulgaria transferred them to the Graf Waldersee.

Miss Paulding, daughter of the late illustrious admiral, has for ten years kept a trade school running at Huntingdon, I. I., where their home was, and hundreds of children have been helped to learn trades.

NEW BOOK LIST

THE LIBRARY TRUSTEES WILL ASK FOR BIDS FROM SUPPLY HOUSES.

Clarence Archer, Colored, Employed as Janitor For the Building at Meeting Last Night.

At the meeting last evening of the trustees for the Carnegie library there was submitted the list of about 800 new volumes of books to be ordered for the institution. The list included all the best works of the present day and will cost something like $1,500. The trustees ordered that the lists be furnished the supply houses away from here, and those establishments be requested to send word showing how much they will furnish the books for. It is expected that some information on this point will be received within the next two weeks, at which time the board will award the contract for supplying the volumes to the lowest bidder. Prospects are that all the books will not be here and placed in use for a month or two yet.

The trustees during their meeting elected Clarence Archer, colored, as janitor of the library building, to take the place of Mr. Gleason, the white man who has been filling that place for some months. The latter is getting along well in life, and although he fulfilled his duties in the best manner possible, still it was deemed advisable to put in a younger person.

Nothing was done by the trustees regarding keeping the building open of Sundays, but it is expected that the first Sabbath in next month they will resume this rule, which was abandoned in the spring, and order issued that the library be kept closed on the Lord's day, because not many people visited same and took advantage of the privileges on that date.

WORK IS ON

THE "FLYING SQUADRON" THIS MORNING STARTS TO MOVING.

Tomorrow Evening at the Palmer Will Be Given the Banquet by Traveling Men.

Mr. Jerry M. Porter, of Clinton, Ky., arrived here yesterday, while this morning he will be joined by Messrs Louis Rossen and Fred Scharlach, of St. Louis, the three composing the "Flying Squadron" from the national board of directors for the Travelers' Protective Association. The trio will today and tomorrow canvass the city thoroughly in securing new members to the organization and arousing deeper interest in the workings of the order. They have been furnished a list of the people here eligible to membership and expect to add many new names to the membership roll before finishing their work. They will be accompanied while here by different delegations from the local post of the travelers' order and scrape the city over for new members.

Tomorrow evening at the Palmer will be given the grand banquet arranged in their honor, at which time several hundred will be in attendance to spend a most delightful social evening, over which Dr. J. R. Coleman, of this city, will preside as toastmaster.

Mr. Porter came in yesterday, ahead of the two other national directors so as to get everything in shape for the vigorous campaign to be conducted.

$4,000 RAISED

WORK FOR THE NEW WHEEL FACTORY IS PROGRESSING VERY WELL.

Committee Will Hear Report of Mr. Cochran Monday Night—News From Commercial World.

The committee of the Commercial club having charge of raising subscriptions to the $10,000 worth of bonds to be floated here by the steel wheel factory, continue pushing their work forward, and yesterday had raised $4,300 of the amount, while furtherance of the undertaking will be continued each day until the requisite amount is subscribed. The committee thinks it will have everything ready and raised in time for a meeting of the board of directors of the club next week, to hear what they had accomplished. When all the money is pledged Messrs. Raun and Carroll will return here from Chicago to close up the details for establishment here of the industry that promises to grow to one of the most important ever captured by this place.

Excursion Report.

Mr. William E. Cochran will tonight return from Louisville where he goes for the Retail Merchants association of this city to look into the plan adopted by the Falls City business men for running excursions into that city from surrounding towns to draw the neighboring trade, and also investigate what inducements Louisville offers these out-of-town patrons to come there and do their shopping. The Paducah association wants to do something like this and as tomorrow is Saturday and a busy day among the retail merchants, it is probable that there will not meet until next Monday night the committee of three selected to hear Mr. Cochran's report, and then recommend something to the entire local association. This committee is Frank L. Scott, Harry C. Rhodes and Jake Wallerstein. The full association holds a session next Tuesday night to hear what the committee has to advocate.

May Move Plant.

A Card From Mr. English.

To the Public:

In view of the fact that an indictment was this day returned against me in the McCracken circuit court, charging me with having been guilty of irregularities in my dealings with Messrs Numsen & Son, of Baltimore, Md., while I was engaged in the merchandise brokerage business in this city, two years ago, and in view of the further fact that great and unusual publicity has been given to these court proceedings, I feel that I owe it to myself and my friends to make the following statement: I did business with Wm. Numsen & Son, of Baltimore, for eight years at this place, and on or about July 1, 1903, they consigned to me a car of canned goods, which I had sold to the various jobbers of this city. It so happened that this particular car was wrecked at Dawson Ky., and could not therefore be delivered by me to the jobbers to whom I had sold the canned goods, Numsen & Son sent another car, which was distributed to the jobbers here in lieu of the wrecked car. I representing Numsen & Co. then filed a claim against the Illinois Central railroad company for the value of the wrecked car. This claim was made by J. E. English & Co., and during the month of September 1903, the railroad company gave the firm of J. E. English & Co., a check for $2,234.50, in full settlement of the claim for damages. After this settlement Numsen & Co. and myself had some differences, which culminated in a full settlement of all differences between us on the 4th day of November 1903, nearly two years ago, and I now hold the receipts of Numsen & Co. for any and all demands they had against me on account of the damages collected by J. E. English & Co. from the railroad company for the wrecked car. This receipt I fortunately preserved and will be glad to show it to any of my friends who may have interest enough in this unfortunate affair to care to inspect it. No member of the firm of Wm. Numsen & Son appeared before the grand jury to prefer any charge of any character against me. I have my faults and have made my mistakes, who of us have not? Enemies of mine, and not Wm. Numsen & Son have instigated this prosecution against me and in due time they will be given ample opportunity to explain in the courts of justice by what authority they thus undertake to ruin me and destroy my ability to earn a living for my family. And when the matter is finally tried out in the courts I will show why this indictment was found two years after my dealings with Wm. Numsen & Son had been closed and a receipt in full executed by them to me. In the meantime all that I ask is a fair fight in an open field, and that my friends and the public generally will suspend judgment in this matter until it is all adjudicated by the proper tribunal.

AWFUL CONDITION

THE BOARDS OF HEALTH GETS AFTER SCHOOL BOARD OF CITY.

Drs. Brothers and Sights Visited Two Buildings and Found an Unsanitary State.

The ill manner in which the sanitation of the public schools is looked after was the topic for discussion at yesterday's called session of the city board of health, which resulted in a communication being directed to the trustees, requesting that they immediately take steps necessary to remedy the deplorable state of affairs especially as regards the building at Eighth and Harrison streets and the one at Fifth and Kentucky avenue.

The school board has been howling about wanting the city's sanitary sewerage system extended out Broadway from Ninth street to a point as far as the Washington building so proper connections could be made with same, for the toilet rooms and water closets desired for installation in that structure. It seems though that they have not been properly looking after the buildings inside the system already existing, as yesterday a called meeting was held by the board of health, Drs. Brothers and Sights, regarding the conditions prevailing at the Fifth and Kentucky avenue structure, and that at Eighth and Harrison streets.

Drs. Brothers and Sights reported at the meeting that they personally visited these two places, and found the toilet room department in a fearful condition. They stated that at the Fifth and Kentucky school it looked as if the floor in the stools was not carried off properly, and remained standing in the basin from whence arose a great stench. They also reported that the basements were damp, not well ventilated and in a general bad condition, which was detrimental to the health of the scholars attending the respective schools. In places they found puddles of impure water that created a most nauseating odor that should be remedied without delay.

The sanitation of the two buildings was found in a generally bad condition, and immediately the board of health will lay before the school authorities the question of putting things in the healthy and proper condition that should be maintained, when realized that the health of hundreds of children is at stake.

MOORE WENT

ONE OF THE CITY'S SLEUTHS GOES AFTER MENAFEE YESTERDAY.

Will White, Colored, Is Charged With Stealing Tools From Contractor Ed Eaker.

Detective T. J. Moore went to St. Louis yesterday after M. J. Menafee instead of Detective William Baker. Mr. Moore came back yesterday morning from Lexington, where he carried Dennis Reed, colored, to the reform school. Mr. Baker intended going over after Menafee, but was summoned to be here as a witness in the Loving killing case, so Sleuth Moore went over after Menafee, who is wanted here on the charge of getting the Rehkopf establishment to cash a worthless check for $100.

Larceny Charged. Will White, colored, was arrested yesterday by Officers Beadles and Rogers on the charge of stealing some tools from Ed Eaker, the street and county road contractor.

Got Package On. Henry York, white, was locked up on the charge of being drunk. He was arrested out about the Union depot by Driver John Austin, of the patrol wagon.

Patrol Wagon. Blacksmith Ed Morgan is putting the old patrol wagon in nice condition, but it will be a week or two yet before the rig is entirely finished and turned out of his shop. Many new parts are to be made, while a coat of paint will adorn the vehicle.

The towboat Jesse B. passed up the Ohio yesterday bound for Rose Claire.

AGAINST FRENCH

MOSE FELTNER GOES BEFORE THE GRAND JURY AT WINCHESTER.

Claims He Was Offered $6,000 to Leave the State and Was Given $200.

Winchester, Ky., Sept. 20.—The Clark county grand jury is investigating another case against B. F. French. He is now charged by Mose Feltner with hiring men to kill him here Monday night. The complainant before the grand jury were Mose Feltner and Sheriff Woodson McCord. This is an outgrowth of the trial of the Hargises and B. F. French and Sheriff Callahan, in Clark county, for contempt of court, in enticing away witnesses during the progress of the Marcum-Hargis damage suit last January. The present charges against French are bribery and conspiracy to kill.

According to the testimony of Feltner before the jury he was offered $6,000 by French if he would leave the state and not testify against any of the men charged with running him away during the damage suit. To show his good faith French did give Feltner the sum of $200, and was to meet him in Portland, Ore., after the conclusion of the trial and give him the balance.

This alleged attempt at bribery occurred on September 4, the day on which the French trial was called, and Feltner went at once to Sheriff McCord and turned the money over to him. The money was exhibited to the grand jury yesterday along with the testimony of Sheriff McCord.

Ruch Cottogane, another of Mrs. Marcum's witnesses, also appeared and testified that after Feltner failed to carry out this part of the agreement and leave the state, French formed a plot to have him killed and made arrangements with Cottogane and Charles Daniels to do the killing, but instead of carrying out the plot they notified Feltner, and the matter was carried before the grand jury.

The alleged plot to kill was to have been carried out Monday night, but after notifying Feltner Daniels went to Lexington, and Feltner followed and took him in charge and returned with him to Winchester. Daniels says he will tell the entire plot to kill Feltner to the grand jury.

BUSINESS MEN SOBERING DOWN

Japanese Capital For Industrial Development Plentiful.

Tokio, Sept. 20.—Despite the fact that the ebullience of popular dissatisfaction over the peace arrangements continues unabated, there are indications that the business contingent is slowly sobering down. The capital intended for new enterprises, following the successful conclusion of the treaty of peace, is gradually coming into the banks as deposits in amounts which are likely to lower the rate of interest.

The profound disappointment which has prevailed has at least proved a benefit to the extent of saving the people any feverish intoxication, resulting in bubble enterprises, like those which accompanied the close of the war with China. The moneyed class has resumed the attitude of cautious frugality which guided its transactions during the war; the financial outlook is not gloomy and capital is impatiently awaiting solid investments.

JUDGE WANTS SALARY LIMIT.

President Kavanaugh Issues Bulletin to Club Managers.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 20.—President Kavanaugh, of the Southern League, has sent out a bulletin to all managers in the league requesting them not to sign any players for next season at present. Judge Kavanaugh, when asked the meaning of this said:

"It is to keep managers from engaging players with high salaries beyond the ability of the clubs to pay and be self-sustaining. We want the managers to wait until they can get together and agree on a satisfactory salary limit. All we want is for all the clubs to be on a self-sustaining basis. We do not care about them making money. We do not want them to pay their way, and last season only two clubs did this. With a salary limit binding on all, the clubs will be more nearly equal, there will be more interest in the game and it will be self-sustaining."

At a Country Store.

Benjamin Dorrance of Dorlington, Pa., who has just returned from an extended salmon-fishing trip in Newfoundland, tells of a visit which he paid to a country store in one of the hamlets.

"What do you fellows do when you sit around the store like this?" he asked of the crowd sitting in a circle on tilted chairs and empty boxes and maintaining a profound silence.

"Well," drawled one of the oldest of the crowd, "sometimes we set and think, and then again sometimes we just set."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

FLOODS COST TWO MILLION.

Santa Fe Railroad During Year—Transcontinental Line.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—Western floods caused the Santa Fe railroad a loss of more than $2,000,000 in the fiscal year just closed. This is stated in the annual report made public yesterday.

It is expected the Santa Fe's new transcontinental line will be completed this year. This line will be shorter than the Trinidad route, will avoid two mountain ranges between Trinidad and Albuquerque, and will be less exposed to interruption by freshets.

By the close of the year, it is given out, a total of 322 miles of double track will have been completed, the longest stretch of which is between Holiday and Emporia, fifty-four miles. Sixteen miles of double track already are in operation, and the total double track construction for the year will be 161 miles.

Big Dividends From Alaska.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

When Secretary Seward paid $7,200,000 for what was generally considered the waste Arctic region of Alaska, and had great difficulty in justifying his action in thus "buying a pig in a poke," even far-seeing Americans could have had no idea that in less than forty years the then lightly regarded bargain would be paying annual dividends of 300 per cent on the investment.

This year Alaska and the Klondike will have a gold output of over $21,000,000, between three and four millions more than last year's product; and, as the New York Evening Mail, which prints the figures, points out, the Klondike region and all gold fields across the line in British territory are as much a part of the United States "for every purpose of finance or commerce" as if they had been included in the Seward purchase. And gold is only one source of Alaska's wealth, the territory having shown possibilities, even in the way of agriculture, undreamed of ten years ago.

This vast and rich territory, with its great and growing permanent population of enterprising and pure-blooded Americans, has been treated in rather shabby fashion by the Washington government, which has turned a deaf ear to its appeals for recognition in the shape of a full-fledged territorial government. So resentful are many Alaska people that a mass meeting recently demanded secession from the United States and annexation to Canada. This, of course, was the action of extremists and intended merely for effect, but the next session of congress should not withhold its territorial government from a section of the country which is better fitted even for statehood than half the existing territories and at least one state.

The Cussless Mate.

There seems to be an air of quietness about the boat. The "cussless" mate stands on the stage plank and sees that each roustabout does just as much and just as quickly as he can, but there isn't any swearing to be heard. Dave Martin is the mate, from Nashville, Tenn. He is broad, with a physical strength that is apparent, but he is low-voiced and soft-spoken. When freight is coming on the boat he stands by to superintend its storage, and when he speaks his voice is mellow-toned, but every dusky rooster on the boat holds him in wholesome respect, for there is a look behind his eyes that tells that manliness can lie behind word free from profanity and the happy-go-lucky darkeys swing to and fro from wharf to deck with wondrous loads, crooning the old-time river songs that reach back to the good old river days.

When she first went into the Calhoun trade the boat created something of a stir among the river settlements and it was nothing unusual for women to come a visiting the boat that had no bar and was blazoned with Bible verses. She was something of a novelty and was unique, but the men who form her crew have long since become used to the interest she creates. Captain Ryman of the Richardson is a son of the founder of the line, and in speaking of the effect of the removal of the bar he says that it has in his opinion been a money-saving plan, for there has never been an accident on any of the boats of the line since the day his father became converted, swept liquor from the boats and had the Bible verses painted upon the white enamel walls.

Tyranny.

The tyrant heard their prayer with a black brow growing even blacker. When they were done he exclaimed in a loud, harsh voice:

"Sit volo, s'e jubeo!"

The unlettered multitude fell back in consternation.

"He's a-settin' his dogs on us!" went up the fearsome cry.—Puck.

SOMETHING ABOUT RUSSIAN WOMEN

The climate of Russia is not particularly favorable to the development of feminine beauty. It fades under the severity of the climate, especially in the case of the upper classes. The peasant women are many of them pretty girls, with round faces, dark arched eyebrows, brown eyes and smiling countenances; all these charms are enhanced by the red and blue ribbons interplated in their hair, often surmounted by a handsome crown and a bouquet of field flowers. They have fine figures, being tall and easy in their movements. In Little Russia they wear a white skirt and wide sleeves, embroidered with red flowers and stars. The jacket is of black velvet, and there are velvet trimmings on the skirt. When the weather is pleasant in the winter they wear large slippers, with high heels, and around their necks they usually wear the wianito, or string of red beads. Their hair hangs in two plaits bound with red or pink ribbon, and one can distinguish at first glance whether they are maids or not, because the matrons wear a chipchik or bonnet. Married or unmarried, they all wear a long white coat in the winter called kozuki.

A few days before a girl is married she herself goes to invite her friends and wears a towel with red ends around her waist.

The married women are the more handsomely dressed because of the fact that their costumes reflect credit upon their husbands.

Some of the embroideries worn by the Finnish women on their aprons, combined with silver ornaments and a silver-circlet in their hair, are very magnificent. These Finnish women all wear undergarments of white linen, with red borders, full petticoats, with fitting bodices, and a large white mantle, fastened to the breast with a brooch, which is a very notable part of the costume.

The asparagus plant in Finland is the symbol of a happy marriage, women very often wearing it, and a suitor for the hand of one of Finland's fair daughters wear a spray of it in his hat.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

THE IDEAL GUEST.

It has been said that women may be divided into two classes, that of the "born hostess" and that of the "born guest," and that neither fits into the other's role with any degree of success. There is one charming woman who is known among her friends as "I. G.," which mysterious appellation stands for "Ideal guest!" She explains her unique title by saying: "It is so silly! Anyone can be a perfect guest if she only tries. All you have to do is to be pleased with your entertainment, and to try to help your hostess make things agreeable for the others. Yes, I do visit a great deal, and I make it an inviolable rule never to repeat in one house what I have seen or heard in another."

The "ideal guest," for instance, makes the care of her room as easy for the maid as possible. When she leaves it in the morning the bed is stripped and the mattress turned to air. When she leaves it for dinner or supper in the evening, all her own belongings are carefully put away in closet or drawers, thus making no "picking up" after her—work which is wearing to the maid and which takes much time. The "I. G." also remembers at noon, or when the guest room has the most blaze of sunlight, to close the blinds or drop the awnings, thus helping to keep fresh her hostess's dainty furnishings.—Harper's Bazar.

ABOUT KICKING.

(Chicago Chronicle.)

Civilization is the work of the kicker. There cannot be too much intelligent and honest kicking. The kicker is the motive power of progress. If it had not been for him humanity would be still living in caves, wearing skins and going out with a stone hatchet to kill something for dinner. The world never has received an impetus from the man who is satisfied with things as they are. A Chicago philosopher was once so profoundly impressed with this truth that he declared that every man who reaches the age of 45 should be taken out and executed because, as he alleged, men of that age become satisfied with the status quo and act as a clog upon the wheels of progress. This, of course, is an extreme view of the matter, but the principle underlying it is correct. Kicking is another name for dissatisfaction with existing abuses—either active or passive—and kicking is consequently the agent of reform and progress.

FEAR CANNON MAY BE KILLED

The Senator's Father, a Mormon Apostle, Has Disowned and Disinherited Him for Fighting for His State Against the Hierarchy and Awful Teachings of That Church.

(Denver, Col., Special.)
"Senator Frank J. Cannon, of Utah, is a hero and he may prove to be a martyr. He came of the Mormons; his father, a Mormon apostle, has disowned and disinherited him because the noble man is fighting for his state against the hierarchy and the awful teachings of that church. Senator Cannon has been condemned to die by the Mormons. His secretary has been quietly told by friends not to be seen in his employer's company too much for fear that he also shall be assassinated. When I said goodbye to the Senator I had a feeling I should never again see him alive."

"It is well nigh beyond belief that there can exist in the United States of American conditions such as are flagrantly flaunted in the face of the nation's womanhood and manhood from Utah, for polygamy, vice, slimy, enervating, as the causes of Rome's downfall, is practiced just as much in Utah today as it was before the manifesto."

Mrs. Schoff's Story.
The foregoing statements made this afternoon at the Savoy Hotel by the president of the National Mothers' congress, Mrs. Frederick Schoff, of Philadelphia, one of the best known women in the United States, and certainly the most important woman in her special field of vitally useful endeavor.

While Mrs. Schoff was in Utah investigating the Mormons she was under the constant surveillance and protection of friends. Not a newspaper in the city mentioned her visit, though all of the papers knew she was there and were cognizant of the purpose of her visit. She talked with hundreds of Gentiles and Mormons in securing her information.

"There is no need for me to exaggerate to impress the facts. The truth is startling and sensational enough to make citizens of the land realize its import when they hear it."

Society is Not Society.
Then she continued:
"Society is not society in Utah. Young men who go to a dancing party there are not able to know whether they are dancing with married women, for so many girls are married secretly. The records are in the Temple, and no one outside knows."

"The number of illegitimate children in Salt Lake City and the whole state is appalling. The poorer women who are wives of polygamists sometimes work in pairs and trios in the home of rich families to support their husbands and offspring."

"The National League of Women's Organizations, which has been formed by the Mother's congress, numbers 1,500,000 women. We are arranging meetings for this autumn in Eastern cities which will be addressed by Senator Cannon if he is alive. That will stir things."

Saved the Fee.
Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, widow of the famous Confederate general, who now lives in Charlotte, N. C., was chaffing a lawyer of her acquaintance about the fees demanded by members of his profession.

"Still, there are occasions when a lawyer isn't the chief beneficiary of a suit," said Mrs. Jackson. "I know of one instance. A friend of mine in Virginia sued a railroad company for damages, and secured a verdict for $50,000, which was paid, and the whole amount is now in bank, subject to her order. Her counsel didn't get a penny of it."

"How was that?"
"She found the only way of outwitting him."

"What did she do?"
"She married the lawyer."—Everybody's Magazine.

WON'T CARRY HIS POLICY.

Gov. Vardaman Denounces Insurance Financiers in New York.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 27.—Gov. Vardaman this morning denounced the Equitable Insurance company and refused to pay premiums on his policy, and he said: "I shall not pay this premium, but rather think that I shall permit the policy to forfeit and become void. I do not care to contribute any more to the gaudy of that crowd of robbers, thieves and marauders who seem to infect the insurance business in New York."

GENERAL NEWS.

Dr. Thomas John Barnardo, the well known London philanthropist, is dead.

New York mattress makers are on strike for a 10 per cent. increase in wages.

Hovey Smith, a farmer of Monroe county, Ky., committed suicide by drowning in a neighbor's well.

WAR ON GAMBLING

CASINO AT WEST BADEN AND FRENCH LICK MUST CLOSE.

So Declares Gov. Hanly, of Indiana, Who Asks People to Help Him Do So.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 27.—Gov. Hanly has declared war on the gambling casinos of West Baden and French Lick, the most noted in America.

Following the assertion that former State Auditor Sherrick had lost $100,000 of the state's money at the French Lick casino, Gov. Hanly made the following declaration in his speech at Ft. Wayne:

"If the people of this state will support me, and I believe they will, the two Monte Carlos of Indiana, at French Lick and West Baden, which today disgrace the state, will be closed, unless the law of the state as now written proves ineffective."

This reference to gambling brought an outburst of applause that drowned the governor's voice. In previous remarks he had said that Sherrick's downfall was largely due to dissipation and gambling, and that the French Lick casino had been made of the state's money on its boards.

While he was thus declaring himself the demagogue of Ft. Wayne were in convention and in their platform declared for law and order and against gambling, an evil that has long existed at Ft. Wayne.

The republican city platform, made a few days ago, also contains vigorous anti-gambling and anti-graft planks, which are as follows:

"We pledge the candidates of this convention against all forms of graft. We recognize the peril to our institutions through the abuse of power in office; for self-enrichment through the opportunity afforded by contract, franchises and other public business, and we denounce all that looks like graft. We declare that the nominees of this convention will be content with their salaries and will protect the public against misuse of public funds. We pledge them to be proof against perquisites, illegal fees, bribes or any other form of unlawful or dishonest use of their power as officers of this city."

"We condemn gambling and wine rooms. We favor decent and orderly government and pledge our candidates not to supersede the laws of the city."

The extent to which gambling is carried on at French Lick and West Baden has been brought forcibly to public attention recently. Besides the announcement of Sherrick's losses it became known that Tom Taggart receives $52,000 a year for the gambling privilege at French Lick. As this is only a part of the expenses that must be paid by the losers at the tables, to say nothing of the profits of the proprietors, the enormous amount of money that must be wagered may be imagined from this one item of $1,000 a week.

TOM TAGGART MAY GIVE TESTIMONY

As to What Contributions the Democratic Campaign Fund Received in 1904.

New York, Sept. 27.—Tom Taggart of Indiana, is on his way here. It is believed that he comes to testify about contributions that were made toward Judge Parker's campaign fund last year. Taggart was the democratic campaign chairman, though he has been trying to forget it since the returns came in. The insurance investigation by his committee of the New York legislature has lifted the lid with regard to donations from the strong boxes of corporations to the ammunition wagons of the contesting parties at election time. President McCall, of the New York Life, and Judge Parker are telling the public more about this than it knew before, and it is believed that Tom T. will add something to the information if he isn't called back to Indiana to protect French Lick and West Baden.

DID NOT KEEP 'EM WAITING.

A Man Kills Himself While Family Is at the Table.

Springfield, O., Sept. 20.—"Keep breakfast warm a little longer," shouted Newton Mays downstairs this morning when called. A few minutes later, as the family sat at the table, a pistol shot was heard in the room above. Mays had killed himself. He was 61 years old, a bachelor and quite wealthy. Ill-health is assigned as the cause. He had been prominent in politics, and was a member of one of the oldest families in Green county.

GOING TO JAPAN FOR PRISONERS.

Odessa, Sept. 27.—The government has chartered the American steamer Garonne, which with the Angara and the volunteer fleet steamers St. Petersburg, Kostroma and Nizhni Novgorod, will start for Japan soon to repatriate the Russian prisoners.

THE EMPTY WHITE BOX

When Doss Said was shown into the white and gold parlor of the former missionary to Ceylon he invariably seated himself in a foreign bamboo chair, which became his dark type of oriental manhood so perfectly that it surrounded him with his native atmosphere.

The chair was one of the missionary's fads, the Oriental was a fad of his daughter Camilla, and she had grown very tired of him. This was why he was making a parting call and taking himself off out of her sphere.

When he had made his adieu to his "lady of night" and she had returned to the white and gold boudoir the scent of sandalwood and foreign spices remained, and on the table lay a peculiar white box two or three inches square.

The girl took it in her hand and hesitated a moment before opening it. There was something forbidding about it that she did not like, but she resolutely removed the cover, expecting some curio such as he was accustomed to lavish on his friends. To Camilla's surprise the box was empty.

"He probably repented of his generosity and put the contents in his pocket when you were not looking," said Kenneth Graham, her lover, when discussing the incident.

"But I did not see the box until he was gone. How did he manage to put it on the table when I was talking to him at the time, and why talk to leave an empty box?" asked Camilla, regarding the object with close scrutiny.

When the young man left the girl she was planning a future radiant with love and happiness. The next day he was summoned by her father to a mysterious interview.

"My daughter is ill," he said as a first greeting. "She is suffering from fever and delirium. She raves about an empty box. What does it mean?" "Good heavens!" cried Graham, incoherently, "have you had a doctor?" She found the box on the table. Who knows there may have been contagion in it?

He related the episode to her father, who scarcely seemed to comprehend it. Some other thought was troubling him.

"Come with me." He led the way to the white and gold room, which was dedicated to Camilla's use. Graham expected to see her, but the place had a troubled and disordered look.

Mr. Rathbun pointed to the large white-paneled folding doors which secluded the apartment from the rest of the house, to which, indeed, it bore little relation.

"Look," he said, "what do you see there?"

Kenneth Graham, practical fellow that he was, felt as if he were losing his head. He pulled himself together with an effort.

"The marks of five dirty fingers, I should say," he answered.

And there was, indeed, the appearance of five distinct long dark lines that appeared on the white surface of the satin-smooth enamel, as if the fingers had been abnormally long and horribly unclean.

"They have been washed off by the housemaid and have reappeared—always when nobody was in the room. You know, Graham, I am not a believer in the supernatural, but how did the finger marks come there without hands? Tell me that."

"Some one put them there, that is certain," said the young man boldly. "Nothing happens by chance in this world."

He advanced closely to investigate the marks, and was seized with a giddiness and repulsion that made him instantly seek the air.

"Let me see Camilla," he demanded. "Have those marks removed, and Mr. Rathbun, set a watch in that room—some one who will be prudent and silent."

While Rathbun was attending to these details, Kenneth had his interview with Camilla.

The young man was appalled at the change in her, and his thoughts reverted to that mysterious box. He asked her about it gently so as not to startle her, but she had forgotten or failed to understand him.

But she hysterically referred to the finger marks, ending with a wild cry of "Ghosts! ghosts! ghosts!" The empty box had been destroyed; the housemaid had burned it, so that menace was gone.

Meanwhile Camilla was growing worse, doctors and specialists failed to help her, and Graham suggested to her father her removal from the house. Everything was ready and Camilla was given a sleeping draught to prepare her for the ordeal.

Then her father and her lover sat near to watch her. The utmost quiet was observed and she fell into a tranquil sleep. This was the time when she was to be taken out to the carriage in waiting, but the two watchers, tired from sleepless nights and anxious days, yielded to the strange somnolence of the room and they too slept.

Only a second it seemed, but when Graham opened his eyes he saw that which galvanized him into a motion sudden and swift as lightning. Camilla was in his arms and borne

THE SPHINX NO MYSTERY

Scientists of Washington confirm the reports which have been in circulation recently to the effect that the mystery surrounding the Sphinx has been solved. At the Smithsonian Institution it was said that the stone enigma of the desert is nothing more than a gigantic image of Ra-Hamachis, the god of morning and the conqueror of darkness; hence it faces the east. This discovery was made recently by means of the inscriptions that were found on the walls of a temple which was unearthed by excavators. Scholars uncovered the foundations of the great statue, and have brought to light many interesting features which until recently were unknown. The temple surrounding the base was intended for the worship of Hamachis, and several chambers hewn in the rock were the tombs of kings and priests devoted to his worship. In 1896 there was discovered a stone cap with a sacred asp carved on the forehead, which once covered the head of the Sphinx like a royal helmet, and must have added immensely to its grandeur, particularly if it was gilded, as it is believed it was. The Sphinx was an independent structure. The body and head are actually hewn out of the solid rock, but much sandstone masonry was built in to make the outlines perfect and to cover any defects in the material. This reinforcement of the original rock is now very apparent to a close observer, but originally it was concealed, for scientists believe that the entire image was once covered with enamel. Indeed, it is possible even now to find fragments still adhering to the surface, which resemble porcelain tiles found in tombs and the ruins of the ancient palaces. Several private collectors and some museums have large blocks of most brilliant coloring and artistic design, and from them we can imagine what an imposing spectacle the great statue must have been before the Persians and Mohammedans destroyed its glory. While it is still an impressive picture. It has no beauty whatever. The nose, the lips and other features have been mutilated by vandals.—The Classmate.

down the staircase past the assembled household before her father saw the awful shape that squatted on the pillow that had been within touch of her white cheek when her lover snatched her, that fearful death in which madness lurks—the deadly tarantula.

It happened to be a scientific fact that in the immediate presence of the fatal wolf-spider, as the terror is called, sympathetic symptoms develop, without the person being bitten, and recovery follows the removal of the cause.

Mrs. Kenneth Graham is now a robust young woman, an acknowledged power in society, and the idol of two men seen with her everywhere, her father and her husband. They remember something which she has fortunately forgotten.

He Got the Money.
An American who has been traveling in England brings home a story about the prince of Wales. When his royal highness was a little fellow at school he ran out of money and knew his parents too well to ask for an advance on his allowance. He thought the matter over and then sat down and laboriously prepared a letter to Queen Victoria, his grandmother, pathetically begging her to lend him half a sovereign (about $2.50). The Queen thought it a good occasion for improvement of his mind, and instead of forwarding the money wrote an autograph letter full of wholesome advice. A few days later she received a brief response which said: "Dear Granny: Never mind about that money now. I don't need it. I have sold your letter for 2 pounds ($10)."

Louisville Races and Horse Show
For the above occasions, the Illinois Central Railroad company will on September 15th and 16th sell tickets to Louisville and return for $8.05, good returning until October 9th, and on September 17th to 30th inclusively, at the same rate, good returning three days from date of sale, and on October 1st to 7th inclusive, good returning until October 9th.

FINEST IN LAND

When Friedman & Keiler moved into their new building they found stored away in an obscure portion of their old place 100 cases of celebrated Jack Beam whiskey that had been bonded in 1893 and bottled in 1902, and therefore of age that had ripened the brand into the finest liquor in the land. Messrs Robert Moshell, of The Palmer bar, and William Gray, of the South Fourth street buffet, realizing whiskey of this great age could not be equalled anywhere, bought the entire 100 cases, and now have same on sale at their respective places, where the lovers of the best are rapidly sampling some.

FROM SHILOH

GEN. H. B. LYON AND DR. D. G. MURRELL RETURNED

LAST NIGHT.

Colonel Kelley Verified Positions

Held by the Forrest Command

During Famous Battle.

Gen. H. B. Lyon, of Eddyville, and Dr. D. G. Murrell, of this city, last evening returned from the Shiloh battlefield, up the Tennessee river, aboard the steamer Kentucky.

They have been up there since the first of this week going over the bloody grounds, with a party which included Colonel D. C. Kelley, Messrs Walker Lambeth, D. C. Scales, D. H. Scales and Miss Annie Scales, of Nashville and Mr. W. A. Collier, of Memphis.

Colonel Kelley was in charge of Forrest's command after the latter was injured, while Mr. Lambeth is a grandson of Colonel Kelley. Mr. D. C. Scales participated in the celebrated fight and was wounded, while D. H. Scales is his son, and Miss Scales his daughter. Mr. Collier was a courier for General Forrest, and is now editor of the Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

There has been some misunderstanding as to the position held by the command during the memorable conflict and these veterans were invited up to the field by Captain James Koger, of the St. Louis and Tennessee river packet line that controls the Kentucky, and which boasts of that company the delegation was given the free use of going and coming.

Dr. Murrell and General Lyon left here over the N. C. and St. L. railroad last Monday, and were joined at Johnsonville, Tenn., by the others of the party. There they took the boat and went on to the field.

Tuesday they spent the day going over the grounds and during the time Colonel Kelley located their position exactly, and will now start a movement for erection of a monument thereon. Only one statue exists on this place, and this shows where General Bates occupied ground during the fight. On account of deaths and injuries the full report regarding Forrest's position and work was never made official at headquarters, and Colonel Kelley is now preparing data and information along this score for the archives.

During the trip Captain King Hale and the other officers of the Kentucky made things most pleasant for the delegation by their courteousness, and added in this manner to the enjoyment of the outing.

She Is Playing This Year in "Lady Teasdale" and Making a Big Hit.

Theatrical Notes.

Manager Thomas Roberts, of The Kentucky, yesterday succeeded in booking Miss Grace Van Studdiford, who will come here October 16th and play "Lady Teasdale." She is one of the leading women of the present day stage, and this is her first visit to this city. She is surrounded by a galaxy of seventy-five widely known players and chorus and is presenting one of the most popular plays of the day.

Manager Roberts yesterday also booked the "Geisha Girl" to come here this winter.

The Fisk-Stock Attraction.

There was another appreciative gathering at The Kentucky last night to witness and enjoy the entertainment presented by the Fisk-Stock company. Like its other presentations the company last night added new laurels to its career. A number of new moving views were presented along with those of local character, and the combination made a very attractive entertainment. The vaudeville part of the bill was most admirable, the specialists all being first-class and of such character as to win liberal applause. It is not putting it in the least too strong to say that the Fisk-Stock moving world is the best entertainment of its kind ever seen here and is worthy of a very liberal support. The combination remains the balance of the week and will give a matinee performance Saturday afternoon. All who would be highly entertained should attend one or more of the company's remaining performances without fail.

CONCLUDES TODAY

Circuit Court Well Through With Its Business.

DOCKET NICELY CLEARED DURING THE TERM.

Yesterday the prisoners convicted during the Court Were Given Their Sentences.

MANY NOTES OF INTEREST CONCERNING THE SESSION.

This afternoon the grand jury in the circuit court will be dismissed and proceedings brought to a close by Judge Reed in order that he can go to Benton Monday morning to start off court there. At that city he tries the criminal and civil docket also and generally remains busy with the cases for both sides for about ten days all told. During the Benton session there comes up next week the celebrated case charging Sheriff Walter Holland, of Murray, with killing Hardy Keys. Holland got a term in the penitentiary at the last trial, but a new hearing was given him. The judge has dispatched things with rapidly here this present session and dismissed the petit jury three days before close of the term, while all the proceedings ready for trial were wiped from the docket.

Civil Trials.

Yesterday an agreed judgment was rendered in the suit of Allie McCord against her brother, Harry Augustus, the order being for the sale of South Fourth street property, the ownership of which each is contending for to a certain degree. The proceeds are to be divided between them.

A divorce was granted plaintiff in the suit of Nellie Floyd against Drury Floyd.

There was ordered distributed among certain parties money in the suit of Henry Temple, Jr. against G. B. Burrows.

Hon. John K. Hendrick was allowed two days' pay for services as a special judge while Judge Reed was confined with illness last week.

Criminal Proceedings.

The court overruled the motion made by defendant to have set aside the indictment charging Sam Gott with furnishing liquor to a minor.

Ernest and Luntz Hill moved for a new trial, but this was overruled, and they took an appeal to the appellate bench. They received 2 years each in the penitentiary on the charge of assaulting C. E. Evans with intent to rob him one night as Evans was entering his yard out beyond Rowlandtown on the Cairo pike.

On there being overruled the motion for a new trial in the case against Alex Fitzpatrick, the accused appealed his case to the appellate bench. Fitzpatrick got a term in the penitentiary for stealing a watch from J. R. Cross.

During this session of court Tom Baker and Charles Johnson, both colored, got one year each in prison for the charge of cutting Greathouse Cheatham, also colored, during a quarrel which started over Cheatham accusing Johnson of stealing his watch and money that Cheatham had left lying on a chair out in a room near Ninth and Washington streets. Yesterday the judge set aside the verdict against Baker and let him go on $300 bond, while Johnson was ordered to serve his term in the penitentiary.

Prisoners Sentenced.

Yesterday Judge Reed had brought before him all the prisoners who were given terms at this session of court and who did not appeal their cases. The men and women were taken before him and sentence pronounced on each. Those who appealed their cases are left in the county jail here and not taken away until the charges against them are finally disposed of.

Those sentenced yesterday were as follows: Rufe Minor, 5 years for assaulting the late James Crow aboard the Dick Fowler excursion to Mound City several years ago; Riley Crowley, colored, 1 year for false swearing; Augustus Green, 1 year for robbing Alice Payne, negro, of $55 while she was asleep in the same room with him at the home of Hatie Pointer, on South Tenth street; Porter Hart, 21 years for murdering Douglas Merriweather down about Maxon's Mill, while they were en route home from a neighborhood social. They quarreled about Merriweather interfering with Hart at the entertainment, with the result that Hart shot the other to death.

Will Fox, 18 months for shooting John Cobb down about Maxon's Mill because of a quarrel they had when Cobb took the glove of Fox.

Ed Settle, 10 years on the charge of incest.

Albert Wallace, 1 year for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Ed Hampton, alias Ed Caldwell, 2 years for grand larceny.

Will Arnold, 1 year for breaking into the house of Charles Zeiss and stealing a firearm.

J. E. Mack, 2 years for assaulting C. E. Evans and trying to rob him one night as Evans was entering his yard, a short distance out beyond Rowlandtown on the Cairo pike.

Joe Lewis, 1 year for maliciously cutting another darky.

James Bonds, 1 year for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Ed Marable, 21 years for beating to death Charles Brown at Eighth and Burnett streets, because Brown would not give him money with which to buy whisky.

Dellie Marthal, 2 years for maliciously shooting at another.

John Jenkins, 1 year for malicious shooting.

Sherley Hughes, 1 year for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Leander Donald, 2 years for grand larceny.

Rufe Neece, 2 years for shooting to death Jesse Ingram out in the Oaks neighborhood of the county because of a quarrel they had at a social which resulted in Ingram trying to kill the other with a rock.

Will Matthews, 1 year for stealing a watch.

Mrs. Mary Brockwell was not sentenced yesterday because this duty had been performed by the judge weeks before last, when he overruled her motion for a new hearing. She got a lifetime sentence at the last term of court.

Sheriff Lee Potter said yesterday that he would take the prisoners going to Eddyville away from here on Monday morning, while in a day or two the females will be taken to Frankfort, where they are always incarcerated in the main penitentiary that is located there.

Jailer Jones Indicted.

Yesterday morning it became known that the afternoon before the grand jury brought in an indictment charging Lafayette Jones with willful neglect of his duty as that public official. It is claimed that he did not properly discharge the duties as imposed upon him by the oath he took when he assumed the office of jailer.

It is claimed that what induced the grand jury to bring in the indictment was the unprecedented act of Jailer Jones in letting run at large around the court house square, Willis Mount, who stands under an indictment for willful murder, and has been sent to the penitentiary for eighteen years, but got a new trial. His case was continued last Monday until the December term of court. Certain information is that Jailer Jones would leave the jail, where he kept no deputy, and go off down town or anywhere and leave the jail in supreme control of Mount, who would not be locked up in any manner whatever and be at liberty to go where he pleased. There is a heavy penalty for failure to perform a duty by a public official.

When the county court house was being cleaned this summer Mount had charge of the work.

Did Not Go.

Judge W. M. Reed yesterday received a telegram announcing that not for some days yet would his presence be necessary in Fulton for a conference with the lawyers interested in the suit for alleged malpractice against Dr. Whitehead by Mr. Thomas Franklin. Judge Reed intended going down there last night, but will wait until some future time.

Insane Boy.

Yesterday afternoon a special jury tried Jesse Hughes and found him a lunatic. He was ordered taken to the asylum at Hopkinsville for treatment.

SCHOOL MATTERS

TEACHERS TAKE UP AS STUDY THIS WINTER RECITATION METHOD.

No Building to Be Erected in Faxon's Addition, So Other Facilities Will Be Adopted.

Yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the public school teachers and Supt. C. M. Lieb, at the Washington building on West Broadway, it was decided that at the monthly teachers meetings this winter they would take up the study of "McMurray's Method of Recitation." Some of the instructors wanted a literary course pursued this term like last year, but it was decided to make a study of the subject mentioned, and then if those desiring cared to organize a literary club in addition they would be at perfect liberty to do so, and could hold their meetings of night time at the high school building, where electric lights are furnished and things in good condition for evening gatherings. After the study for the regular teachers sessions was decided upon those wanting a literary club decided not to act right at once, but may take same up before long. The teachers will outline their programme right away showing by whom reports and papers shall be presented at the respective meetings of the teachers for the ensuing months.

Will Not Build.
Sept. Lieb yesterday talked to a number of the trustees of the schools regarding putting up the new building on the block of ground owned by the school board in Faxon's addition to the city. After talking with them the superintendent found that all wanted to put up the new structure, but the money was not in the treasury, therefore they would not consent to its construction, because their desire was not to borrow any more money this term. All of them expressed their opinion as believing that the two room building should be put up at Faxon's to care for those tots from that portion of the city, but they do not want to make a borrow to raise the funds.

As this status develops itself, Supt. Lieb said yesterday that there seemed to be only one alternative, that of fixing up another room at the building on Fifth and Kentucky avenue, and transferring down there some of the pupils whose presence in different rooms around town over-crowd those respective rooms. There are two empty rooms at the Longfellow building and one could easily be fixed up and a new teacher employed to supervise same. The superintendent will see what can be done along this line right away.

Absent Teachers.
Miss Emma Morgan will return tomorrow from Cereulean Springs to start teaching English at the Washington building Monday morning. Supt. Lieb today expects to hear from Prof. Suggs, who is yet over at Madisonville, and is supposed to write today in order to let the superintendent know whether or not he will be back to take charge of his building next week. If he is not this is desired to be known here so others can be gotten to take his place.

Grade Meetings.
After the teachers finished deciding their monthly meeting study they repaired to each respective room in the building yesterday and held their grade meetings, during which time those for each grade of all the building outlined their work for the coming scholastic month. Much interest was in evidence at the grade sessions, which always herald a good school year.

CLAIM FOR DAMAGES AGAINST REHKOPF SADDLERY COMPANY.

Judgments on Property Notes Asked, Payment for Stolen Property Demanded, Etc.

Yesterday in the circuit court Charles Weille of this city, filed a suit of $150 against The Pullman Palace Car Company of Pullman, Ill., which is the concern that operates sleeping, buffet, dining and other special cars on trains of every road the country over. The plaintiff in his petition claims that July 25th while out on a tour of the country, that he took a sleeper at Atlanta, Ga., bound for Birmingham, Ala., and that the next morning about 9 o'clock their train ran into another train, with result that a collision happened. Mr. Weille had left his coat hanging up in the sleeper beside his seat, and walked out to look at the wrecked engine. While he was out someone took from the coat pocket his $50 watch, $35 chain and $25 fob. He claims the Pullman company is responsible because they did not furnish sufficient protection to the passengers in the way of watchful porters and conductors to look after the welfare of the people aboard the car.

Sued On Notes.

Adolph Well sued Pauline Houser Meyers for $603.60 claimed due on some notes. May 2, 1902, Hannah Douney sold Pauline Houser Meyers some property near Eighth and Washington streets, and in partial payment therefore she executed notes to the Douney woman who in turn sold the notes to Adolph Well, who now sues defendant on the ground that the notes have never been paid off.

Claims Damages For Injury.

The sum of $4,000 was asked for by Elmer Collins in the suit filed against the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company. Plaintiff was employed at defendant's collar factory on Kentucky avenue October 5th of last year and claims that during his absence two belts had been put on the pulley operating the machinery around which he worked. When he returned to work he found one belt crawling over the other, and immediately proceeded to throw one of them off, when he was caught and thrown down, his shoulder dislocated and body bruised of a severe nature sustained. He claims negligence and carelessness on part of Rehkopf as the cause of the accident.

Sued For Property Notes.

A. R. Hicks filed suit against A. N. and M. J. Robinson for $150, claimed due on a note, and then filed another suit against them for $250 claimed due on notes. Plaintiff charges both of these notes were given in payment for property sold defendants, and never paid off.

Wants to Be Untied.

Annie Tolver sued Edward Tolver for divorce on the ground that he abandoned her during September of 1901. They married down in Tennessee during 1899.

Well Known Men Sue.

F. M. McGlathery filed suit against Charles R. Hall for $1,000 damages, on the ground that defendant made false representations to plaintiff when defendant sold plaintiff defendant's interest in the Charles R. Hall grocery company at Third and Jefferson streets. Charles Hall and J. R. Province composed the firm last year, and Hall sold out to P. M. McGlathery for $1,500, of which $1,000 was paid in cash September 12, 1904, while the $500 was secured by a twelve months note. McGlathery now states that when the deal was on for his purchase of Hall's interest, that the latter furnished McGlathery with what purported to be an invoice, showing the amount of stock on hand, how much was owing the firm from private parties, and how much the firm owed others. The deal was made, and now McGlathery sues Hall on the ground that the invoice Hall showed the other while negotiations were on for the sale, was not a proper and correct one. McGlathery claims that after he bought the interest in the establishment, he found that the estimate of Hall as to how much private parties owed the firm, was false, and that money owing the firm $2,000 less than Hall contended when the sale was made. McGlathery also claims that the firm owed $2,000 more than Hall said they did. For this McGlathery sues for $1,000 damages from Hall, on the ground that he, McGlathery, had to pay one-half the excess of outstanding indebtedness above what Hall represented the firm owed, and also that he lost money by not receiving from outstanding accounts, the amount Hall claimed private individuals owed the firm.

Suffered from Sores on Face and Back—Doctors Took His Money But Did No Good—Skin Now Looks Clear as a Baby's.

ANOTHER CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

Captain W. S. Graham, 1321 East St., Wheeling, W. Va., writing June 14, 1904, says: "I am so grateful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me. I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my skin now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them all that Cuticura Soap and Ointment did it."

STILL ANOTHER CURE

Neck Covered With Sores, Hair Fell Out, Wild With Itching

Mr. H. J. Spalding of 104 W. 104th St., New York City, says: "For two years my neck was covered with sores, the disease spreading to my hair, which fell out, leaving an unsightly bald spot, and the sores, inflammation, and merciless itching made me wild. After a few applications of Cuticura the torment subsided, the sores disappeared, and my hair grew thick and healthy as ever."

AND STILL ANOTHER

"For over thirty years I suffered from painful ulcers and an eruption from my knees to my feet, and could find neither doctors nor medicines to help me, until I took Cuticura which cured me in six months." (Signed) M. C. Moss, Gainesville, Tex.

LEAGUE MEETING

PRESIDENT BROWN LEAVES TODAY FOR VINCENNES TO ATTEND.

Grover Land Is Expected Here Very Shortly to Remain During the Winter Season.

Today at noon there leaves for Vincennes, Ind., President Charles Brown, of the K. I. T. league, who goes to attend the meeting called for tomorrow by the officials and directors of that organization for the purpose of winding up the business of the present season that is just coming to a close. President Gus Thompson, of the local club, expects to go along also.

At this meeting some steps may be taken about the league for next year, but probabilities are that Paducah will not be in the K. I. T. because the larger leagues want her to come into them, she is such a fine ball town and the mainstay heretofore of the K. I. T. organization.

Manager Harry Lloyd, of the local club, is at Cincinnati visiting relatives, but may run over to Vincennes to attend tomorrow's meeting. Grover Land is expected back here some time next week from Toledo, Ohio, to remain for the winter. Probably he will go to his home in Frankfort, Ky., for a visit before coming here. He went with the Toledo club after disbandment of the Paducah team when the K. I. T. went to pieces.

Recovering Lost Treasure.

(Technical World.) It was but a few years ago that a ship with $250,000 in gold was sunk not far from Shanghai and that divers were sent to the spot to recover the treasure. The ship lay at the depth of 160 feet, making it a work of extreme difficulty and hazard, but day after day the divers labored, taking up box after box through which the seaworms had bored their tiny holes, until four-fifths of the gold was recovered. Then, one day, a fleet of pirate junks bore down upon them and it was only by the exertion of the most tremendous efforts that the party escaped with what they had already recovered. And afterward they returned and completed the job and took out the very last box of gold! Truly the age of romance is still with us.

THREE MONTHS

CAULKERS HAVE BEEN OUT OF WORK THAT LENGTH OF TIME.

Both Sides Seem to Be Satisfied With Position. They Have Taken in Matter.

One week from tonight, the union caulkers of this city will have been out just three months on their strike at the marine ways on First and Washington streets, and at the Finney dry docks further up the river. Both sides seem to be well pleased with the stand they are taking, and declare they will not accede to the wishes of the opposite party. In this the caulkers refuse to work unless the plants let them spin their own oakum, while the plants will not permit them to go back to their labor unless the caulkers agree to let boys spin for them the oakum as has been done here in the past.

Superintendent Mike Williams, of the marine ways, continues working as many men as he wants to at his plant, while most of the big work of here goes to the ways at Mound City, they being controlled by the Howard shipyards at Jeffersonville, Ind., which also owns the local ways.

The caulkers out on the strike continue to receive their weekly benefit from the strike fund of their national organization. This benefit is an allowance of so much each week while they are out. Headquarters of the caulkers allowed the men here the privilege of receiving this benefit for just double the length of time usually accorded in strikes.

PLEA FOR BOY

HON. HAL CORBETT TAKES LAST STEP TO SAVE YOUNG EZELL.

Board of Pardons Meets at Harrisburg, Pa., the Second Wednesday in Next Month.

Hon. Hal Corbett, of this city, has received word that the board of pardons of the state of Pennsylvania meets at Harrisburg, the state capitol, the second Wednesday of next month, which is two weeks from next Wednesday. Mr. Corbett will go up there at this time to lay before the board the plea for the life of James Ezell, the young telegraph operator of this section of Kentucky, who has been sentenced to death for murdering another railroad man at Uniontown, Pa. Mr. Corbett represents Young Ezell and has carried the case to the highest court in the state, but the latter tribunal affirmed the death sentence of the lower court. Now as a last resort Mr. Corbett will plead with the board of pardons to commute the penalty to life imprisonment. Ezell cut the throat of the yardmaster because the latter claimed Ezell was drunk, the latter being the telegraph operator for the railroad.

The lad is a twenty-two year old boy of frail constitution, and the son of Mr. Bud Ezell, of Paris, Tenn., who formerly lived at Murray and also over in Graves county.

This is the first time the lad was ever in any trouble and his friends are working hard to save his life.

MENAFEE BACK

THE CHARGE IS CONTINUED UNTIL TOMORROW IN POLICE COURT.

Dan Russell Got Postponement of Case Until October 5th—York Fined.

Yesterday morning Detective T. J. Moore returned from St. Louis with M. J. Menafee, who is charged with getting Rehkopf to cash a worthless check for $100. Menafee was arraigned before Judge Sanders in the police court and the proceeding continued until next Monday. Menafee was locked up for many days at St. Louis on the charge of getting the Simmons Hardware company to cash a check for him. His brother-in-law squared things up with Simmons and they dropped the prosecution. Wednesday just as Menafee was released of the Simmons' charge, the detective took him for the case here and he was again locked up, and now brought back to this city. He claims that he has money in the bank at New Reads, La., and does not know why his check was not honored from here. Yesterday morning he telegraphed his mother for $150 to pay off the matter here. He will then be held for people at Chattanooga, Tenn., as it is claimed some of his work was done there. He is a very nice looking young man and always stood well with the merchants here.

Dan Russell was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning on the charge of stealing things from his roommate at the St. Nicholas hotel last year. The proceeding was then continued until October 5th.

Henry York was fined $1 for being drunk.

LIFE!

OUR DEFINITION OF LIFE IS SIMPLY THIS: TO LIVE SO AS TO GET THE GREATEST HAPPINESS FROM IT, CONSISTENT WITH DOING OUR DUTY TO OTHERS.

YOU ARE MISTAKEN IF YOU THINK THE MOST HAPPINESS COMES FROM UNLIMITED ENJOYMENT. THE LIFE WHICH IS MODERATE IN ALL THINGS AND NOT THE LIFE WHICH IS EXCESSIVE, KNOWS THE GREATEST HAPPINESS.

NOTHING EQUALS SAVING AS A MEANS OF EXTRACTING PLEASURE FROM LIFE. BY MAKING YOU THINK A LITTLE OVER THE MONEY YOU SPEND; BY PLACING IN YOUR LIFE A PURPOSE FOR WHICH YOU CAN WORK, SAVING IS THE MOST INFLUENCE YOU CAN OBTAIN. ONE DOLLAR WILL START AN ACCOUNT.

THE AUTUMNAL EQUINOX TODAY

(Chicago Chronicle.)
Saturday morning at exactly twenty-nine minutes and thirty-nine seconds after 11 o'clock, central time, the sun will cross the equator. That is, it is said to cross the equator, but it really does not do a thing, and the earth does the whole job.

In June the earth is tilted over so that the sun is vertical over the tropic of Cancer and after that it moves around to the other end of its orbit, always tilted in the same direction, so that the sun is vertical over the tropic of Capricorn. All this time the sun is vertical farther and farther south of Cancer until it becomes vertical over the equator. It does not tarry there a millionth part of a second, but is vertical farther and farther south until in June it stands over Capricorn.

Of course, when the sun is vertical over Cancer the days are the longest and when it is vertical over Capricorn they are the shortest and when it is vertical over the equator, as it is in March and September, the days and nights are of equal duration, which gives the season the name of the equinox, though as the earth is always on the go it is certain that not more than one day and night—if any at all—can be of exactly the same length.

There is one curious thing about the equinox that seems to have entirely escaped attention. The sun can cross the equator only twice in a year and consequently must cross it at two definite points. It does not cross it at different points at different times. When it crosses Saturday morning it will cross for the whole earth and that will be its last performance until next March. This being the case, it is interesting to know at what point on the equator the transit will occur, and this is perfectly obvious, although we do not remember that any attention has ever been paid to it except, of course, by astronomers.

If the sun were to cross the equator at noon it would cross it where our meridian crosses it. If Chicago were on the eighty-seventh parallel of longitude the transit would occur in the Pacific ocean some distance off the coast of Ecuador. The fact is that our longitude is 87 degrees and 37 minutes and the time is nearly 11:30, and this computation applies only to astronomical time and not to central time, but these corrections would not appreciably change the location of the transit.

What is more, it looks as if this location was a fixed one, except as it might be affected to a small extent by the precession of the equinoxes, but this is a point which we respectfully refer to Professor Burnham. If it be true that Chicago is in line with such a significant point on the earth's surface it will only be another out of many indications—though somewhat astronomical—of its sublime destiny.

To the man on the street the equinox is known mostly as the time of the supposed equinoctial gales. The average man, especially if he be a seaman, believes that about this time we will experience a number of violent storms of wind and rain. This seems to be a popular delusion. The position of the weather bureau is that there is no such thing as a storm caused by the equinox, any storms occurring at that time being mere coincidences. Storm conditions begin in September which increase in frequency and violence from that time until February, but without the slightest reference to the sun's crossing the equator.

This delusion is so persistent and long-lived that it may justly be used to point a moral. Human beings are the victims of thousands of delusions just as invincible as this one and with far more important consequences. Science protests against them, but the masses smile incredulously at the philosopher and hug their delusions to their hearts more fondly than ever.

A USEFUL TONGUE.

(Pearson's Weekly.)
An extraordinary case is reported of a girl born at Wertheim-on-the-Main in 1880, who, as the result of illness when six years old, lost the use of every member of her body except her tongue. By dint of long practice she was able finally to eat, write and even sew, by means of her tongue alone. She took up the end of cotton in her lips, and with a dexterous turn of the tongue, made a knot in the end.

She cut out doll's clothes, manipulates an easy-cutting pair of scissors, with her lips, while to thread the needle she stuck it into the table with her lips, and with tongue and lips passed the thread through the eye with perfect ease. In the course of years the tongue lost its original shape, becoming thin and pointed and of unusual length.

Don't Allow Yourself to Get Rusty

The machine that lies idle is far more liable to injury than the machine that runs.

The idle machine gets rusty. Air and dampness do more damage than wear and tear. Let the machine remain inactive a while and the coating formed by the corrosion soon covers the bright metal and the parts become stiff and cranky.

And what is true of machinery is true of humanity.

For instance: A man neglects the working parts of his body. Normally these parts should be exercised. He indulges his members in idleness. Whatever vitality and working force they may have had when in continued use neglect causes the machinery to run stiffly. It is the rust.

A man may neglect to exercise his working brain forces. He may have ever so quick a mind, but if he does not use his mental machinery the rust of idleness is soon over it.

Or—A man may neglect to use the moral forces that are in him. There is a weakening somewhere. The machine lets down. And soon the parts are rusted.

And so of society or government—associations of men for special purposes.

Note this: When the primary or the convention or the ballot box—working parts of government—are neglected the rust collects. The machinery works poorly. It may break down.

Keep your body working without friction by systematic exercises.

Keep your mind bright by using it. Keep your soul clean by working it.

An' so for society—nine-tenths of its evil are caused by the idleness of its necessary working parts. It's the rust.

AN OPTIMIST.

MEXICO WILL HELP DOWIE.
Gives Every Encouragement to His "Eden City" Project.

Victoria, Mexico, Sept. 21.—John Alexander Dowie, prophet of Zion and founder of the Zionist church, will arrive in Mexico early in October with a party of about thirty of his followers for the purpose of beginning active work in preparing the Gonzales ranch, situated near here, for the colony which he is to establish thereon.

Dowie has closed the deal for the purchase of the ranch by making the first payment of $50,000 in gold. The purchase price is $1,200,000, which must be paid within three years. It is one of the most valuable ranch properties in Mexico. It is all susceptible to irrigation, and can be brought to a high state of cultivation. Dowie will have a force of engineers at the ranch to survey the site for the proposed city. Surveys for a complete system of wagon roads will also be made. The erection of buildings will be completed as soon as the necessary material can be placed upon the ground. The town will be named Eden City and its inhabitants will be made up almost wholly of new converts to the faith who will be sent here from all parts of the world.

Dowie says the present Zion City, near Chicago, will not be drawn upon for colonists for the new town. The federal and state governments are giving the project substantial encouragement. The colonists will be permitted to import their agricultural implements and household goods free of duty and the land and improvements will be exempt from all taxation for a long term of years.

As Many Chances as Ever.

(Boston Globe.)
There are unquestionably many opportunities for success now, the same as there have been since the creation of the world, but now, as ever, they must be searched for. Everyone encounters obstacles, but it should be borne in mind that failures are intended to serve as stepping stones to success. Most successful men have been "broke," have met with failures, have been discouraged and have thought, as many others probably do today, that "life is not worth living." Yet their perseverance and determination aroused their latent power and helped them to turn adverse conditions to good account. Those who struggle manfully and keep up their courage will not die without having achieved a measure of success befitting their intelligence and talents.

RADIUM AS A SOURCE OF LIFE

By the action of radium upon bouillon, when sterilized as far as such experiments permit, microscopic bodies appear. In the first instance they are not as micro-organisms generally, or, I should say, always are—all of the same size so long as they are of the same kind; ordinary bacilli, provided they are of the same type, are found to be also of the same dimension. They do not show signs which indicate that they have one end all sprung in a continuous growth from ultramicroscopic forms. But this is one of the characteristic features of the products now produced by radium. There can be no question that they spring—that in each case they have sprung—from the invisible and grown to such a magnitude as to be seen. We find no such indication with ordinary bacteria. If they have not the marks of manufactured articles they afford at least the signs of not having sprung spontaneously into existence. They bear the stamp of an inheritance of many varying qualities from a long and probably countless generations which have at last made them what they are. But the "radiobes" undergo many developments. After six or seven days, and at times even more, they develop nuclei; but later still they cease to grow, and then begin to segregate and multiply. These are some of the qualities which have led me to suppose that they are irritable, assimilating and automatic, and not, strictly speaking, lifeless things.—Harper's Weekly.

FAMOUS PITCHERS TO MEET IN COMBAT.

When the New York Nationals and Philadelphia Americans meet in the world's championship series two of the greatest pitchers the diamond has produced will be arrayed against each other. They are "Christy" Mathewson and "Rube" Waddell. Both men have been doing remarkable pitching all season, and when they face each other the contest should be one that will stand conspicuous in baseball annals of all times.

Many followers of the game predict that Mathewson will outpitch the erratic left-hander, but "Rube" has scores of admirers who wait to be shown that he cannot equal the pitching record of the mighty Christy in the championship series. The men, it is figured, will pitch three of the games. Ames will probably fight it out with Coakley and Plank and McGinnity will contest for pitching honors.

In Need of Public Support.

(Public Opinion.)
Popularity was never before so essential to the president as it is right now. He is about to enter upon a legislative campaign in which he can succeed only if the country stands back of him. The house and the senate normally will not take kindly to his definition of our national requirements. Congress is the stronghold of established wealth, with all of its good and evil. Congress is the jumping jack of the railroads and the trusts. The average senator or representative feels himself beholden to the "vested interests" which control the strings that may be pulled to elect or defeat him. When the executive desires legislation which the vested interests do not want congress obeys the vested interests rather than the executive—unless the great public shows signs of waking up and kicking the executive. In such an event congress crawls. From these well-understood facts the present importance to the president of popularity is apparent.

WANTED—A SERVANT.

Good servants are much in demand in Washington as well as in other cities. Mrs. R. had searched long and vainly for a fairly good servant, a colored one, and at last in despair she stopped an elderly colored woman who looked as if she might have been one of the ante-bellum house servants, and therefore a reliable one, and made known her wants. "I want a girl who is trustworthy and a good cook. I am willing to put out most of our laundry work and to give fair wages, but so far I haven't been able to engage one," said Mrs. R. "Don't you know of some one I can get?" "Deed, no lady, I don't," was the answer. "Oh, dear," sighed Mrs. R., "what shall I do?" "I dunno fuh show, lady, less'n you does as I has to do—hire a white woman."—Lippincott's.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF IN THE OLD QUAKER CITY

Where the New Declaration Is Proclaimed--Patriotic Hymns Sung by Earnest Delegates Who Name an Anti-Gang Ticket and Commend the Mayor.

Philadelphia, Sept. 21.—In a most unusual way, followed by an unprecedented demonstration, the new city party, a reform body opposed to the methods of the Republican organization yesterday nominated a county ticket to be voted for at the November election.

Yesterday's convention was the first in many years in this city to which the delegates were unopposed. There was no "slate," and each of the 917 delegates were at liberty to name whom they pleased for the offices. The result was a selection of candidates who fairly represent the reform element that has come into prominence since Mayor Weaver's break with the organization last May.

Never before in the history of this city had the concluding scenes of the convention been so quiet. Then the entire body of delegates and alternates marched to the City Hall and acquainted Mayor Weaver of the action they had taken.

Lifted to the Table.
Mayor Weaver was lifted to a table in the center of the reception room, and a delegate stood on either side of him with a large American flag. City Chairman Edmonds, addressing the Mayor, congratulated him upon the work of the convention.

"Mr. Mayor," said Mr. Edmonds, "there are here 917 delegates, every one pledged to the support of your administration. They have nominated a ticket which represents the wishes of the people. We assure you of the support of the people of Philadelphia."

Mayor Weaver in reply said: "Today's convention is only the beginning of the fight in which the administration and the people are pledged to stand together. Philadelphia has been corrupt, but whether or not she has been contented will be determined next November. Your ticket represents the reform I stand for. Let us work together for the overwhelming defeat of the organization. That is the way to make reform permanent. The man who votes the ticket nominated today is the true Republican. Let us make a pledge, you to the administration and the administration to you, that we will not rest in our earnest endeavors to bring about the defeat of the machine."

A New Declaration.
In opening the convention, which, like the one of 1776 that promulgated a declaration of independence for a nation, drafted and signed one yesterday for a city and a county, Chairman Edmonds said in part:

"We come here because we are lovers of our city, no matter what may be our party affiliation. It was here that were first enunciated the principles of liberty. Because we believe a good name is better than riches we assemble to show our devotion to our great city. This is the principle. The occasion is here. A band of men has made our city a shame in the face of the world. The government of the city has brought the blush of shame to every honest citizen. We stand here to redeem the city of Philadelphia. We proclaim that the reign of graft in Philadelphia shall end. This is a body consecrated to a lofty purpose. I wish to offer a tribute of thanks to John Weaver, mayor of Philadelphia (prolonged cheers), who has done more than any individual to give the people of Philadelphia an opportunity to win their freedom."

At the conclusion of the chairman's speech the band played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and then the delegates, alternates and spectators joined in the chorus.

The Ticket.
The following ticket was nominated: Sheriff, Wilson H. Brown; Coroner, J. M. R. Jernon; City Commissioners, Rudolph Blankenburg and E. A. Anderson; Judge Common Pleas Court, Hon. Charles E. Biddle; Judge Orphans' Court, Hon. Morris Daffert.

The following platform was adopted: "The City Party of Philadelphia, in convention assembled, hereby makes the following declaration of principles and invites the co-operation of all good citizens, without regard to their party ties of national political principles:

"The City Party has been formed for the redemption of the city of Philadelphia from the control of corrupt and criminal conspirators calling themselves Republicans. It aims to put an end to government by and for municipal contractors and to substitute government by and for the citizens. As necessary incidents to its policy of reform and progress, the City Party demands:

"1. A complete and thorough revision of the present election laws, including a provision for personal registration.

"2. The repeal of the 'Ripper' bill denying to the mayor the right to appoint his heads of departments.

"3. A sincere and impartial enforcement of the civil service provisions of the city charter, making appointments to office depend upon merit and not at all upon political pull.

"4. That municipal franchises, when granted, shall be for limited periods only and with proper compensation, and not as matter of political or personal favor.

"5. An honest, open, economical and efficient administration of our municipal affairs, based upon the absolute divorce of officeholders from political control, and that no citizen shall hold any city employment or be interested in any city contract.

"6. The abolition of grade crossings, the enlargement of our school facilities and the co-operation with the State and national government in deepening the Delaware river channel and the speedy completion of underground transit facilities."

The platform concludes with the endorsement of Mayor Weaver and the approval of his directors in administering their departments "with faithful adherence to the letter and spirit of the law."

Indorsed by Democrats.
The Democratic county convention was held here last night and the ticket nominated by the City Party was indorsed. This is regarded as a personal victory for Chairman Donnelly, who appealed to the delegates to nominate the City Party's ticket in the interest of good municipal government. The platform in part was as follows:

"We commend Mayor Weaver for breaking with the gang and espousing the cause of the people. No city in the union had greater need of a revolution such as he inaugurated. The municipal officers were entirely controlled by a corrupt and criminal combination that brazenly plundered the city and stifled the complaints made by the citizens. The city council executed gang orders with unparalleled servility.

"The municipality was robbed of its public utilities, such as street railways, gas, electric lighting and telephone franchises, which were given to ring favorites without adequate return to the city, although the plunder represented millions of dollars in value.

"The same corrupt ringsters who have plundered Philadelphia dominate and misgovern the state. The citadel of their power is the office of the state treasurer. By distributing state funds among favored banks they insidiously bribe eminent respectables who otherwise would not close their eyes to gang rascality."

Same Old Human Nature.
(Osborne, Kan., Farmer.)

It does beat the world how jealous we all are. We are always ready to jump out and praise some fellow who is engaged in something that doesn't cross our path. He is a crack-jack if he is working in another field. But the moment he gets over into our front yard we begin to knock him. All of us are too much stuck on ourselves. The lawyer thinks he knows more than the fellow who is on the other side. When the other fellow skins him he lays it all on the justice. When some fellow beats our time with a young lady we always say: "It does beat the dickens what fools these girls will make of themselves." There is a business that would beat Standard Oil profits if it could be worked. Just buy men for what they are worth and sell them for what they think they are worth.

A Close Bargain.

A Southern congressman tells a story of an old negro in Alabama, who, in his bargaining, is always afraid that he may get the worst of it. On one occasion, it appears, the aged darkey went after a calf that he had pastured all summer, and asked what he owed for the pasturing.

"I have a bill of $10 against you," said the farmer who had undertaken the care of the animal, "but, if you are willing, I'll take the calf and call it settled."

"No sah!" promptly exclaimed the negro, "I'll do nothing like dat. But," he added, after a pause, "I'll tell you what I will do—you keep the calf two weeks longer and you can have it."

(Cleveland Leader.)

"Can't see why you're so smitten with her."

"Why, because, she's so deucedly pretty."

"Beauty's only skin deep."

"Well, great Scott! I'm no cannibal. That's deep enough for me!"

IN TWO COUNTIES

A PLUCKY LADY OF GRAVES COUNTY VISITING RELATIVES.

(Mayfield Messenger, 21st.)
Mr. R. F. McClain and Miss Lou Dick, of the Lynnville section, were married Wednesday.

Mr. W. R. Nicholson, one of the best farmers of the Pottsville section, will soon move to Lone Oak in McCracken county.

The revival at the Baptist church grows with each night. The crowd last night was the largest yet, and the interest was the greatest.

Miss Effie E. Emmerson, who has been making her home with the family of Mr. John Blalock, on College street, was married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock to Mr. Theo. Barrett, of Metropolis.

On account of the alteration that happened a few weeks ago in the eastern part of the county, J. T. Cope is now made defendant in a $2,000 law suit. W. F. Slayden, who filed the suit, alleges that Cope maliciously and unlawfully assaulted him and now prays damages to the amount named. After Slayden was injured he was for some time in a critical condition and it was feared that he would not recover, but is now able to be up.

Mrs. Irene Wright who formerly lived in Mayfield, is here now on a visit to her sister, Mrs. L. O. Driscoll, and mother, Miss Wright who is only 18 years of age, about one year ago married Mr. Harry Wright, of Davenport, Iowa, the wide world renowned balloonist. Miss Wright is one of Kentucky's plucky women and she is now taking up the cause of her husband. She is a member of the most successful female aeronaut and high diver in the country. She has frequently ascended three miles in a balloon without wrist straps and descended with parachute. One of her diving features is to dive from 100 feet in the air into a seven foot pool of water.

On last Friday night Aunt Sallie Utley, of Olive, passed away after a short illness of the infirmities of old age. Mrs. Utley was over 80 years of age and one of the most respected ladies of the county.

Sam Park, of Wiley, was in our office Wednesday and told us of the recent mad dog scare in his neighborhood. A dog belonging to a Mr. Brush took hydrophobia and took a wide circle before he was killed, biting dogs, hogs, cattle and any other living thing that came in his way. Most of the owners of bitten dogs killed them immediately, but many hogs and several cattle were bitten run mad and either died or were killed.

Gilbertsville letter:—T. W. Whitmer and wife, of Sacramento, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Vickers, of this place. On Sunday there was a picture made at Mr. Vickers' residence consisting of five persons one each of five generations. Mr. Whitmer, his daughter, Mrs. Vickers, her daughter, Mrs. Donahoe, her daughter, Mrs. Gregory, and her little son. This is something remarkable. Then a picture of the reunion was made of twenty-two; Mr. Whitmer being the father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather of all except five, who were sons-in-law, granddaughters-in-law, and one great-grand son-in-law.

WOMEN AND SMOKING.

(London Truth.)

Apologies of some recent remarks of my female contributor, "Madge," on female smokers, a lady gave me the other day two reasons against the practice. The first is that smoking develops the mustache, a face which, she told me, is well known to small boys, and is at once the cause of juvenile smoking in the one sex and the alarming development of mustaches in the other. Secondly, smoking produces at any rate in women "weak-rimmed eyelids" for which reason, said my informant, "in a mixed assemblage of women it is easy to pick out the smokers by the ugly pink tinge of the eyelid edges." Assuming the facts to be accurate, the question still remains whether women will consider them arguments against the use of tobacco. Are mustaches and pink eyelids to be considered a disfigurement or an ornament? One can never tell. In different ages and places—from Paris to Polynesia—many means of improving their appearance have been adopted by women. Men may pretend to ridicule these artificial charms, but they end by falling victims to them, which shows that women know their own business.

A Catholic bishop predicts the vandals who have been desecrating Catholic cemeteries in Wisconsin and Michigan will be lynched if caught.

BOILERMAKERS

MR. CHARLES HART LEAVES TO ATTEND NATIONAL MEETING.

Engineer Armstrong Was Improved Yesterday—Graveling of New Streets by L. C.

This morning Mr. Charles Hart, of the Illinois Central railroad boiler making department, leaves for Chicago to attend a meeting of the law committee of the National Boilermakers' Union. He is a member of that law-making body and remains at the Windy City for about one week, then from there goes to St. Paul, Minn., to attend the annual gathering of the entire national body which is made up of representatives from over the entire United States.

The session opens in that Northern city October 2, and continues for several days. Mr. Hart is the representative chosen by the local boilermakers body.

Little Better.

Yesterday Engineer J. T. Armstrong was somewhat improved at the railroad hospital, and Surgeon Murrell thinks that he will get better still, as there is hope for him. He suffers considerably yet from the attack of pneumonia.

The tramp Utley, who was hurt while stealing a ride on the wrecked freight train, is still at the hospital, but the surgeons believe that he will have recovered sufficiently to be dismissed in the next two weeks.

Flagman Cook is doing all right and he can leave the institution shortly also. All were hurt in the Obion collision, Utley's foot being mashed so that amputation was necessary.

Gravel Streets.

Civil Engineer Beck, of the I. C. force, is still at work laying off the vacant commons behind the railroad hospital so they can be cut up into city lots, and graveling streets run through same, preparatory to selling the ground off lot at a time. He thinks they will get to graveling the proposed thoroughfares by the first of next month. He is doing most of his work at the office of City Engineer Washington beside the city hall. It will include all that area of commons between the Jefferson street side of the hospital and Clay street on the west.

Not Yet Home.

As yet Mr. John Watts, of here, has not returned home from Buffalo, New York, where he was elected secretary and treasurer of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen's national organization. He is expected any day, and until his arrival it will not be known whether his new place demands removal of his residence elsewhere or whether he will continue living here and make his headquarters.

CONSTRUCTION

SUPT. ORR GETTING THINGS IN SHAPE FOR THE CARNIVAL.

Mr. J. H. Tate Left Yesterday For Jackson to Bill Paducah's Amusement—Watch Contest.

Supt. Orr, of the construction department for The Parker Amusement company, arrived here yesterday, morning from Belleville, Ill., to put up the different wooden structures that are needed at the carnival grounds on Twelfth and Trimble streets, where the festival will be given next week. He has started to work already and will have the grounds in fine shape by time the attractions arrive here early Monday morning from the Illinois town where they have been showing this week. Yesterday Mr. J. H. Tate, of the advertising and bill posting department of The Parker people, left for Jackson, Tenn., to bill that city and intervening towns, giving the dates and character of amusements to be exhibited here next week. Mr. Tate has been here several weeks working under direction of Advance Agent Morris, who is one of the foremost carnival men of the country and has gotten things in an unexcelled condition for the opening.

Watch Contest.

Leadership in the contest for the gold watch to be given away changed yesterday, as Miss Griffin leaped again to top of the column. The standing of the respective candidates is as follows: Pearl Griffith, 1115; Mae V. Patterson, 904; Elizabeth Sinnott, 529; Lily Mae Winstead, 517; Carrye Blythe, 479; Tina Browne, 412; Hattie Terrell, 327; Linnie Beadles, 303; Louise Campbell, 263; Monima Hopkins, 229; Irene Benner, 284; Frances Herndon, 191.

Mr. George Utterback, the merchant of Blandville, was in the city yesterday on business.
